Asians Protesting North Viet Raids

MOSCOW (UPI)—A mob of 3,000 Asian and Russian students attacked the U.S. Embassy with rocks and ink bottles today in protest against American reprisal raids on North Viet Nam.

U. S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler rushed immediately to the Foreign Ministry. He was understood to have protested that Soviet policemen did not take sufficient steps to protect embassy property.

NO COMMENT

(In Washington, the White House had no immediate comment on the vandalism. Press Secretary George E. Reedy said news reports constituted all the information he had on the demonstrations and "I wouldn't have any comment at least until we get some further information.")

Police stood by while the mob shattered windows in the building.

At least three persons were hurt in the hour-long demonstration. American correspondent Adam Clymer of the Baltimore Sun said he was beaten by the demonstrators.

Another newsman, Bernard Ullman of Agence France Presse, was cut near the eye by a flying object. An Asian student was seen with blood streaming down his face.

ROUGHED UP

Clymer was reported to have been arrested by Soviet police and held for questioning. A U.S. Embassy official went to the police to inquire about him. Witnesses said Clymer was roughed up by student demonstrators and then became involved in a scuffle with Russian police. It was not known how badly he was hurt.

The demonstrations followed stern Soviet warnings that the U.S. reprisal raids on North Viet Nam could harm U.S.-Soviet relations.

About 200 blue-coated police rushed to the scene to "keep order." They did nothing to prevent the students from shattering every window on the first two storys with a barrage which included snowballs and hunks of ice.

MATTER OF POLICY

Many of the screaming students barged past the policemen to plant protest banners written in Chinese characters on the black iron fence in front of the embassy.

A few American diplomats looked down on the scene from balconies upstairs. The embassy's Marine guards had locked

Asian, Russian and a few African students hurled rocks and smashed windows at the U. S. Embassy in Moscow today in protest against American air raids on North Viet Nam. Demonstrators were led by 250 Vietnamese with about 300 Chinese helping them out. An embassy official said a protest was filed with the Soviet Foreign Ministry against the demonstration.

HAWAII? PERHAPS IT'S JUST A STATE OF MIND

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Hawaii has been a state for close to six years now, but a sizeable segment of the American public apparently seems to think it is a foreign country.

Or at least this is the conclusion which members of Hawaii's congressional delegation are tempted to reach. The state's two senators and two representatives are regularly favored with mail bearing addresses such as "embassy of Hawaii," "Hawaiian ambassador" or "Hawaiian consulate."

Many of the letters ask about visa requirements for entering Hawaii. A fifth grade teacher wrote recently to request "coins and stamps from your country." Another teacher wanted to exchange U.S. money for "Hawaiian currency."

Fairfax Will Air Aide Plan Views

By ELLEN DIETSCHY

Amid charges that two councilmen were trying to muzzle discussion on hiring of a city administrator, the Fairfax City Council last night called a special meeting for 8 p.m. next Monday to allow the public to air its views on the new position.

As the meeting opened at 8 p.m., Gordon B. Adams of 475 Cascade Drive asked the council to consider the city administrator matter ahead of items on the agenda for the meeting. Mayor Cornelis Van Vliet asked that Adams bring the matter up after the council disposed of written communications.

An hour and one-half later, after the council had gone through numerous letters, Adams again raised the question.

Councilman Frank Lawrence declared: "We have been criticized in the press for discussing the city administrator when the matter was not on the agenda. I have no intention of discussing this until it is placed on the agenda."

Adams said he had telephoned several councilmen before the meeting and had been told the council would discuss the matter.

"I think two of your members are endeavoring to muzzle me," Adams declared to the council.

Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. asked, "Since when is a citizen who wants to speak at a meeting out of order?"

Adams was allowed to continue. He pointed out that with the hiring of an administrator, the city would have five persons in supervisorial positions for its 25 employees.

He suggested that several positions be combined to save the city money instead of hiring the administrator. He requested that his plan be put on a six-month trial basis.

There was applause from the 20-member audience.

Former Mayor W. E. Radtke supported Adams's statements.

"I'm amazed that you started to interview applicants before considering this proposal," Radtke said.

"Our present city engineer (Richard J. Nelson) is eminently qualified to hold the job," he declared.

Nelson was among more than 40 applicants for the job.

Councilman Robert R. Sousa said Nelson did not qualify for the job during the council's closed personnel session Jan. 31.

Councilman Sousa declared: "We gave serious consideration to all applicants. I refuse to discuss personalities in this matjob so let's try to be fair and have a little confidence in the council."

"I think Nelson is qualified

Reds Down Three U.S. Helicopters

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist gunfire shot down three U.S. Army helicopters 30 miles east of Saigon today, killing an American crewman and wounding eight. To the north U.S. jet fighter-bombers roared off the Da Nang airfield, possibly to attack targets in Laos.

Communist North Viet Nam claimed in a broadcast that 12 U.S. aircraft were shot down by Communist groundfire during bombing raids on North Vietnamese territory Sunday and esterday. U.S. and South Vietnamese authorities said only two planes were lost.

Red China warned that its army is "in battle array" waiting for the United States to invade North Viet Nam. It said in a broadcast it would consider such an attack an invasion of the Chinese mainland itself. Another broadcast said more than one million persons had participated in anti-American demonstrations in China.

As tension mounted, the first 78 American dependents of the 1,819 in Viet Nam left the country. One group of 22 flew from Saigon to Manila and another group of 56 flew from Da Nang to Hong Kong.

Jerome Durham Appointed Marin Public Defender

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today appointed Deputy Public Defender Jerome C. Durham as public defencer to succeed Peter Allen Smith, who has been appointed Marin Municipal Court judge.

Durham's appointment was made effective today at a salary of $829 a month.

The appointment was recommended by Thomas F. Keating, presiding judge of Marin Superior Court, and Joseph G. Wilson, presiding judge of Marin Municipal Court.

Supervisors had asked the two judges and Howard K. Morehouse, president of the Marin County Bar Assn., to recommend an attorney for the post.

The bar association did not make a recommendation. Morehouse explained by letter that the association had never been called upon before in such a process and did not have procedure established for action.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he had also received letters from several attorneys and from Appellate Court Justice Richard M. Sims Jr., former Marin Superior Court judge, recommending Durham for public defender.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker hesitated at moving without a recommendation from the bar association, but voted for the appointment when the other supervisors assured him that the bar association would not take offense.

Behr said a delay in naming a public defender would result in a disservice to the county.

Quentin Inmate Stabbed In Back

Oliver Jackie Stevens, 22, serving time for second degree robbery, went as far as the prison mess hall before another inmate noticed his wounds and told him to go to the infirmary. He was treated for puncture wounds of the back and left forearm.

No weapon has been found and there is no suspect, said prison business manager Irving O. Ritter. Stevens arrived at San Quentin Dec. 10.

King Leads Montgomery Vote Drive

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. led a procession of about 200 Negroes today in a quiet voter registration march in this city of his first racial triumph.

The crowd was much smaller than the Negro integration leader had hoped for, but he said civil rights workers would continue their campaign throughout the day to get more Negroes to join those who walked to the courthouse with King.

At a church rally last night, King had urged Negroes by the thousands to join what he described as the "peaceful goodwill" voter registration campaign.

King was scheduled to meet at 3 p.m. in Washington with Vice President Humphrey and acting Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach. He said he hoped to talk later in the day with President Johnson.

From the nation's capital, the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize winner plans to return to Selma, Ala., to resume command of the three-week-old civil rights struggle in that west Alabama city.

Negro leaders directing the Selma campaign in King's absence promised to continue right - to - vote demonstrations throughout the week.

Another in the day-by-day series of protest marches in Selma sent 57 more to jail yesterday—including the Rev. James Bevel, one of King's aides-after Negroes refused to sign a voter registration waiting list made available at their request.

Reported Yorty Aide D.C. Pay Stirs Fuss

SACRAMENTO AP) — Gov. Brown said today the reported use of a congressional aide in the Los Angeles mayoralty election "could set a dangerous precedent if the report is true."

Rep. Charles H. Wilson, D-Calif., recently was quoted as saying that he had been ordered by California Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh to keep on the congressional payroll a former aide now working full time for Mayor Samuel W. Yorty.

Brown said such action could be a dangerous thing "but I believe it is a wise move for the governor of California to stay out of a mayoralty contest."

When asked if Speaker Unruh also should remove himself from the contest, Brown answered:

"This is too early in the session and I won't comment on the speaker injecting himself into a nonpartisan race. We all have different ways of doing things. I have one way, Mr. Unruh has another."

Brown had these other comments:

On limiting some of the power of the State Highway Commission concerning freeway routes — "I oppose any move to take away from the Highway Commission any of its authority on the freeway system. This commission is aware of the natural beauty and other conflicts involved in setting freeway routes."

On the governor's proposed property tax relief program—"I will release the program within one week. The whole tax program is rather complicated and I will release all of the report at one time, rather than piecemeal."

On pay raises for state college professors — "I hope the legislature will take care of these professors with salary increases, although this is not included in my bare-bones budget."

Jobs, Jobless Up For Area

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Employment in the San Francisco-Oakland metropolitan area reached a January high of 1,187,900, up 3.1 per cent from a year ago, the California Department of Industrial Relations reported today.

But unemployme, also continued above the year ago level with the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate rising to 5.9 per cent last month compared with 5.4 per cent in January, 1964.

The five-county area's gain in jobs was 35,200.

HONOLULU (AP) — Twenty-two women and children — the vanguard of 1,819 American dependents ordered out of South Viet Nam by President Johnson — arrived in Honolulu today.

Bagley Bill Would Hike Two Salaries

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Salaries of the Marin County district attorney and auditor would be raised substantially under a bill introduced by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael today.

The measure calls for the auditor's salary to be raised from $12,075 to $19,000 per year on a gradual basis starting next year and reaching the $19,000 figure in 1970. The district attorney would get a pay hike from $16,650 to $25,000 per year over the same period.

The legislation was introduced at request of the Marin County Board of Supervisors and Grand Jury.

Among other bills introduced by Bagley was a measure allowing one-way tolls to be collected on the Golden Gate Bridge.

There has been legal controversy over whether the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District could collect tolls from traffic traveling in one direction only. The bill, if adopted, would include authorization for one-way tolls on the bridge in the

Johnson Gets Way On Sending Food To UAR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has abandoned its insistence that the government end sales of surplus food to the United Arab Republic.

Last week the House supported 204 to 177 a Republican move to ban an estimated $37 million in food shipments under an agreement that ends June 30. The Senate, responding to pleas from the administration, voted to leave up to President Johnson whether to carry out the sales.

Yesterday the House voted 41 to 165 against a Republican effort to instruct House representatives on a joint conference committee to insist on the ban. This means the Senate view will prevail and the restriction will be eliminated in the final legislation.

The House had tacked the amendment onto a $1.6-billion supplemental farm appropriation bill in an effort to snub UAR President Gamal Abdel Nasser. All but $37 million of the $431.8 million in food which the United States had agreed to supply Nasser over a three-year period has already been sent to the UAR. He has told the United States, in effect, to take its aid and "go to hell."

In the original House vote, 74 Democrats lined up with the Republicans, disregarding pleas from House leaders that this would tie the President's hands in the conduct of foreign affairs. yesterday only 37 Democrats voted with the Republicans.

Argentine Police Stymied In Hunt For Neo-Nazi Gang

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentine police say they are stymied in their attempts to capture a neo - Nazi gang that fought a gun duel with police last month and apparently was bent on a campaign of terrorism against Argentina's Jews.

A Buenos Aires province detective said the gang vanished and that two unidentified men picked up for questioning last week had been released for lack of evidence.

The detective, who did not allow use of his name, said there was some inconclusive evidence that one of Adolf Eichmann's four sons might have been involved. A picture of the son—he did not say which—was found in an arms cache at the site of the battle on the night of Jan. 28 in woods outside Buenos Aires.

Eichmann, former Nazi SS officer, was kidnaped by Israeli agents in Argentina and hanged in Israel in 1962 for complicity in the Nazi slaughter of millions of Jews.

Police have what they consider reliable information that a German, about 30, may be the ringleader. He has not been found. They say they have few other clues.

On the night of the battle, police Lt. Jose Hughetti and a detachment of officers were staked out in the woods after they received a tip about the gang.

Hughetti said he was inching toward a small shack when "they opened fire from all sides." After a 10-minute battle, the gang escaped.

They also found a plan listing the addresses of 27 prominent Jews marked for assissination and a second plan to bomb a chartered bus in which 40 Jewish children were to ride by next day on a visit to a nearby farm.

Police suspect the group is another cell of a small but very active ultra - nationalist secret movement called "TACUARA" whose members openly admit they are anti-semitic and pro-Nazi.

Senate Confirms Brown Kin Post

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown's appointment of his sister-in-law to the State Personnel Board has been confirmed by the Senate on a 28-3 vote with one abstention.

Mrs. May Layne Bonnell is the first woman on the five-member board since it was created in 1934. The appointment is for 10 years and pays $8,000 a year, $7,000 less than her salary as the governor's appointment secretary.

She will assume her post March 1.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Red Tug Still Off North Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Russian ocean-gonig tug Arban's slow southward cruise brought it 65 miles north of San Francisco Bay and within 10 miles of shore, the Navy reported today.

The Navy continued its watch of the 255-foot tug, which has been under Canadian or American naval surveillance since it was spotted last month off Vancouver Island.

Its objective has been a mystery. Officers aboard American warships speculated the purpose might be a routine oceanagraphic mission.

The mysterious tug, which the Navy says carries only navigational radar, has been cruising off the coasts of Washington and Oregon.

It has remained in international waters.

'Fair Lady' Wins Golden Globe

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"My Fair Lady" and its two Broadway stars—Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews—joined Peter O'Toole and other international stars last night as principal winners of Golden Globe awards from the Hollywood Foreign Press Association.

Miss Andrews

Miss Andrews got her award for "Mary Poppins."

"My Fair Lady," the movie adaptation of the George Bernard Shaw classic "Pygmalion," won three awards—best motion picture musical of 1964, best director (George Cukor) and best performance by an actor in a musical (Harrison).

O'Toole's award was for best actor in a dramatic film. The picture, "Beckett," also was presented a Globe as the year's best motion picture drama.

Edmond O'Brien was chosen the year's best supporting actor for "Seven Days in May" and Agnes Moorehead won the feminine equivalent for "Hush . . . Hush, Sweet Charlotte."

U.C. Faculty Committee Named

BERKELEY (AP)—A faculty committee has been appointed to hear future cases of students who violate campus political rules at the University of California at Berkeley.

The five-man committee was appointed yesterday by acting chancellor Martin Meyerson, to whom it will report and make disciplinary recommendations.

The academic senate requested establishment of such a committee Dec. 8, five days after the arrests of more than 700 sit-ins at Sproul Hall, the administration building.

The students had been protesting, in part, the suspension of eight leaders of the Free Speech Movement by then Chancellor Edward Strong.

The students maintained the administration was out of touch with students, a situation the academic senate said could be eased by establishment of a faculty committee to examine disciplinary matters.

More Teacher Pay Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation to keep top flight, experienced teachers in the classroom has been introduced by Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan, D-South San Francisco.

Ryan's bill creates a classification of "master teacher," or teachers with 10 years experience. They would be chosen by regional commissions for their skill and get more money, he said.

"In a sense, the teacher has become a kind of peasant in the educational feudal system," he said. "The purpose of the certified master teacher bill is to reverse this momentum . . . "

84 Die In Fiery Plane Crash

NEW YORK (AP) — An Eastern Air Lines four-engine propeller plane crashed into the Atlantic Ocean in flames last night, apparently killing all 84 persons aboard.

The plane crashed just five minutes after taking off from Kennedy International Airport at 6:20 p.m. The crash scene was 14 miles from the airport, about eight miles off Jones Beach on Long Island's south shore.

The weather was good, there was no hint of sabotage, and everything had seemed normal as the plane soared off.

There was no radio word of distress from the crew. It should have been a fine trip for Flight 663 to Richmond, Va.; Charlotte, N.C.; Greenville-Spartanburg, S.C., and Atlanta, Ga.

The four-engine, propeller-driven plane went down about five minutes after its 6:20 p.m. takeoff, dropping 3,700 feet into the dark calm sea.

The crews of two other airliners saw the crash.

William Lamb of the Civil Aeronautics Board said an Air Canada crew reported "an explosion in the ocean," and a Pan American flight saw the plane "in an exceptionally steep turn."

A Coast Guard lookout on shore, seaman Dale D. Bishop, 19, of Easton, Pa., heard a sound like a firecracker and saw a fire at sea.

By early morning, search boats had recovered parts of several bodies.

The searchers also fished out scraps of burned and torn parts of the plane, charred bits of clothing and airline brochures, found floating on water 60 to 75 feet deep.

They found no survivors.

The 79 passengers included two young opera singers en route to a South Carolina concert, a woman bound for a funeral, prominent Southern businessmen, a former Virginia college beauty queen, soldiers heading home on furlough from Germany, and others returning to camp in Georgia.

The plane had started in Boston, but all but one of its passengers had boarded in New York.

Chris Walk of the Federal Aviation Agency said the last radio call from the plane was an acknowledgment of a routine instruction from the Kennedy tower to change direction. The plane had reported it was climbing through 3,700 feet, heading southeast.

Questions Will Be Sent To Jenkins

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate investigators, who spared Walter W. Jenkins a face-to-face interrogation when they were told it would threaten his life, today prepared a list of questions they want the former White House aide to answer.

The Senate Rules Committee ordered two staff members to work up the series of questions on the Bobby Baker case. They will be submitted to the committee tomorrow for approval, then forwarded to Jenkins.

Committee Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., said the procedure for having Jenkins answer the questions has not been worked out. "We anticipate we will get an honest answer," he said.

The committee voted 8-1 yesterday to submit written questions to Jenkins and not force him to appear before the panel "for the time being."

Jenkins, a top aide to President Johnson for 25 years, refused to obey a subpoena which ordered him to appear last Thursday.

He resigned his White House post last fall after two arrests on morals charges became public. Since then he has been under the treatment of a psychiatrist for severe mental depression.

Jordan told reporters after the day-long closed meeting of the committee yesterday that two psychiatrists and a physician testified "that to bring Mr. Jenkins in at this time would be dangerous to Mr. Jenkins' health and life."

Tougher Kidnap Law Is Proposed

Lagomarsino's bill could sentence to death a person who kidnaps a woman to commit forcible rape or who kidnaps a child for purposes of lewd conduct.

Under the bill, however, the court could impose a sentence of life imprisonment without possibility of parole.

Under present law, Lagomarsino said, the death penalty or life imprisonment without the possibility of parole applies only to kidnaping for robbery or ransom.

New Zealand Plan

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—New Zealand will extend its territorial waters to 12 miles out this year to protect the country's fishing industry, Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake said today.

Humphrey Says History Will Call LBJ 'The Educator President'

CHEYENNE (UPI)— Vice-President Hubert Humphrey, making a one-day political appearance in Wyoming, predicted yesterday President Johnson would be described in future history books as "The Educator President."

Humphrey said the chief executive realized that education was the key to winning the war on poverty and was striving to see that every American had "the key to unlock the treasure house of knowledge."

The vice president, who was to head back to Washington today, spoke before a $25-a-plate Democratic fund raising dinner of 500 people late yesterday, shortly after addressing the Wyoming Legislature. He became the first vice president ever to address the state's Legislature.

The former Minnesota senator said great strides had been made economically and in the field of civil rights.

"I don't say it cannot be improved," Humphrey said. "But what has been done is nothing short of phenomenal."

Humphrey, who also toured the Air Force missile complex surrounding Cheyenne, defended the United States action in bombing targets in North Viet Nam.

He said the retaliation was the "only course" appropriate. He emphasized that the U.S. air strikes were "carefully thought through.

"The President did exactly what he had to do and what was required," Humphrey said.

Auto Finance Bid Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Allstate Financial Corp. has been authorized to enter the automobile finance business in California as an industrial loan company.

The company's application had been opposed by banks, auto dealers and independent insurance agents. Their main contention was no needs exists for the 36 statewide offices the company plans to establish.

Charles E. Rickershauser Jr., commissioner of corporations, said yesterday he could not restrict competition "particularly when it appears that the public may benefit from anticipated lower interest rates." Allstate is a subsidiary of Sears Roebuck & Co.

Public Defender Right Proposed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino, R-Ojai, has introduced a bill to give defendants in all misdemeanor cases the right to be represented by a public defender.

Lagomarsino said yesterday defendants have this right down to the superior court level, but at the municipal and justice court level the court must provide an attorney from a private list.

"It's an incongruous situation," Lagomarsino said, "since the U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that a party is entitled to such a defense in all criminal and misdemeanor cases."

Consultants Urge Bay Fill Planning Be Put On Ice

By ALAN CUNNINGHAM

Authors of San Rafael's proposed general plan have suggested that the bay fill portions of the plan, which suddenly became a hot issue last fall after going unnoticed since 1963, be put on ice until state and regional studies of bay filling are completed.

In the meantime the city council might study ways of financing city purchase of some of the lands.

Te suggestions are in an 11-page memorandum sent to city hall yesterday by consultants William E. Spangle and Daniel P. Coleman, who had been asked to submit proposed changes in the plan before the upcoming joint hearing of the city and county planning commissions.

The consultants touch on several general topics in their memo, but nearly every one relates, directly or indirectly, to the tidelands question.

Briefly tracing the history of the plan and the city's hearings on the subject to date, Coleman and Spangle said they originally had proposed "a combination of filled lands and open water areas with most of the privately held lands proposed for uses requiring fill but with specific development controls.

"This plan, prepared two years ago, reflects what we as consultants understood public policy to be and our evaluation of local public opinion at that time toward the waters of the Bay."

Since then, they relate, much discussion has been generated on the problem of saving the entire San Francisco Bay.

"There is little doubt," they say, "that the attitude of the public in this regard is either drastically different or more adequately expressed than it was at the time the plan was in preparation."

Just before last November's election, the tidelands sections of the plan became a political issue in the election race between Marin County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker and San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis for Leydecker's seat, which he retained.

During the campaign, Leydecker charged that "San Rafael is planning to fill 2,000 acres of the bay."

Three weeks after the election, many of the 200 persons who attended the city council's second hearing on the general plan were highly opposed to the tidelands proposals.

In this week's memo, Spangle and Coleman urge that "all land uses now shown on what are presently the waters of the Bay be deleted and the plan show these areas in a 'reserve' category for later determination as to appropriate and economically feasible uses.

They then take note of the effect which such a "moratorium" would have on other phases of the original plan. One section affected would be the proposal for a bayside freeway, which Coleman and Spangle had earlier suggested to fill the gap once Highway 101 reaches its peak usage.

Shelving the tidelands would require the council also to delete this idea for the present. If this happens, the consultants urge that councilmen "by policy at this time merely recognize the need for additional traffic capacity," and delay a decision on a new highway location until bay fill studies are finished.

Spangle and Coleman strongly urge the city to fight any plans for making Highway 101 a double-deck freeway.

"The blight of a double decked structure through downtown San Rafael and the Dominican area is not pleasant to contemplate," the memo comments.

Other sections of the plan dealt with are those involving apartments, parks, the San Rafael Canal and future population projections.

The consultants defend their inclusion of "high density" areas by stressing that not all such are proposed for maximum density or strictly for apartment houses.

Referring again to tidelands, the memo says the city will have plenty of land for parks if it chooses later to buy private lands along the bay. Otherwise, additional park sites can be added.

"The council should have rather specific evidence of need and willingness of the citizens" to pay for such park lands, however, before making such a change, the consultants warn.

A suggestion to move the proposed crossing of the canal from Paganini Point to a point opposite Bellam Boulevard is rejected by Spangler and Coleman.

As for the prediction that 130,000 persons may one day live in the city and county areas covered by the plan the two consultants stress that the figure will be somewhat lower if the city elects to completely halt bay filling, since such a policy would limit the land available for development.

They suggest this could reduce the area's "population holding capacity" by 20,000 persons.

Not Marriage Italian-Style

ROME (UPI)—The much-publicized marriage, Mexican style, of actress Sophia Loren and movie producer Carlo Ponti was declared void yesterday by the civil court of Rome. The action leaves the couple open to prosecution on bigamy charges.

The court ruled that Ponti is still legally married to Giuliana Fiastri, the daughter of an Italian army general. He married her in 1946 and had two children by her.

Miss Loren and Ponti were married by proxy in Mexico in 1957.

Jury Trial Set In Embezzle Case

New jury trial date for Gene Kissinger, 38, charged with embezzling $16,000 in money and merchandise from Black Market in San Anselmo, was scheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for March 23.

Kissinger, an ex-convict who moved from 555 Canal Street, San Rafael, to San Francisco last May, was taken from Marin County jail to Napa State Hospital, then escaped there Oct. 10. He later was apprehended and returned to Marin County.

Overdose Reported

Mrs. Joanne Trout, 28, of 121 Mona Avenue, Fairfax, was reported in good condition today at Ross General Hospital where she is recovering from taking an overdose of pills late Saturday night.

LARKSPUR SCHOOL TRUSTEE NAMED

One-Time Teacher In Europe Gets Unanimous Approval From Members

Mrs. Cornelia J. (Poppy) Perrone, of 249 Tulane Drive, Larkspur, was unanimously selected last night for the position of the Larkspur School District board vacated by Mrs. Pauline Secor, who resigned.

Mrs. Perrone and James W. McClintock were interviewed by the school board in an executive session. They were the only two who applied for the job.

Mrs. Perrone will hold the job for two and one-half years if she completes the term. A Larkspur resident for four years, she is past president of Henry C. Hall Parent-Teachers Assn. and has been serving as P-TA representative to board meetings.

She is married to Michael Perrone, owner of the housewares concession at the Mac Discount Department Store in San Rafael. She has three daughters, Adele, 5; Monica, 12, and Shelly, 13, all attending Henry C. Hall School.

A native of Indonesia, Mrs. Perrone emigrated to the Netherlands before World War II. She met her husband when he was serving in the U. S. Army during the war. After the war they lived in San Francisco, and nine years ago moved to Kentfield and later to Larkspur.

Mrs. Perrone received her university education in the Netherlands and was a physical education teacher in Europe before her marriage.

New Committees To Study Projects

The Terra Linda High School student council has established two new committees for special projects and school improvement.

The special projects committee, headed by Andy McIntyre, a freshhman, will study situations that could develop into problems and make recommendations. The improvement committee, headed by Tom Flautt, a sophomore, will study school problems and suggest solutions.

Talk On Frame Care

A demonstration and lecture on the finishing and refinishing of picture frames will be given by James Doolittle to the North Bay Artists at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Novato Community House.

Barbara Hutton Is Taken Ill

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Barbara Hutton, the Woolworth heiress, entered Presbyterian Medical Center last night for diagnosis and treatment of an intestinal ailment.

She flew here from Mexico with her seventh husband, Prince Doan Vinh Na Champacak, a French-Vietnamese whom she married April 7 at Cuernavaca, Mexico.

The prince, who stayed at the hospital last night, said the cause of his wife's illness was not known.

"It may have been the water in Mexico," he said.

Annexation On Agency's Agenda

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission will consider an application by San Rafael to annex 70 acres adjacent to Draper Industrial Park, east of Highway 101, at 8:15 a.m. Thursday at the Civic Center.

The area proposed for annexation is south of Smith Ranch Road and extends to the north fork of Gallinas Creek.

The commission also will consider a 2.5 acre annexation to the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District, and five annexations to Novato Sanitary District totaling 48.7 acres.

Commissioners also are expected to discuss fire protection in unincorporated areas, according to John F. Barrows, executive officer.

Guilty Plea Given In Forgery Case

Plea of guilty to two counts of forgery was entered in Marin Superior Court yesterday by Michael A. McNinch, 30, of 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael. Judgment was scheduled by Judge Thomas F. Keating for March 1.

McNinch forged $147.86 and $145.26 checks Oct. 9 with intent to defraud the Cellars, 534 Third Street, San Rafael.

PICKED UP LATER

Theft Suspect Just Misses Facing Gun

A burglary suspect just missed facing the twin barrels of a .12 gauge shotgun in Fairfax yesterday and was arrested by San Anselmo police a short time later.

The suspect was spotted by Robert J. Bishceri of 6A Meadow Way, Fairfax, just after 1 p.m. in the rear entrance of 6 Meadow Way with a coffee pot. Bischeri's suspicions had already been aroused by the presence of a strange car, parked in front of 6 Meadow Way with a man and a television set inside.

He rushed into his residence, which is an apartment attached to 6 Meadow Way, and came out with his shotgun at the ready. By that time the car was leaving with the television set.

At 2:30 a.m., San Anselmo police stopped a car and arrested Robert G. Guldon, 21, of 855 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael. The television set was not inside. Guldon was identified by Bischeri as the man he had seen with the coffee pot.

A television set and typewriter in another car, owned by Guldon, were identified by Frank Montero of 6 Meadow Way as his property, police said.

Oblivious to the whole incident was Mrs. Montero's daughter, Karen K. Mickleson, 16, who was home in bed with a case of hives while the burglary occurred.

ALL BECAUSE OF A CANOE—Jeffrey Pearce, driver for Tawns Electric Co. of San Rafael, looks in disgusted disbelief at what happened to the front end of his truck as California Highway Patrol Ivan Jump makes accident report. The truck hit a car which was slowing to get behind a trailer load of canoes on Highway 101 at California Park hill today. (Independent-Journal photo)

Sleeping Driver Crashes Car

Russell Bonnett, 26, of Fairfax fell asleep at the wheel of his car and crashed into a tree this morning in full view of a patrolling San Anselmo policeman.

The small sportscar driven by Bonnett, of 306 Forrest Avenue, was a total wreck, with one front wheel pushed back to the front door, according to Officer Rudolph Velarde, who was driving by at 1:46 a.m. when the crash occurred.

Bonnett was reported in good condition at Marin General Hospital with a broken nose, cut face and bruised forehead.

Velarde said Bonnett's auto was west bound on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard opposite Drake High School when it started to weave and hit the tree.

Bonnett told Velarde he had been staying awake with difficulty.

state streets and highways code.

Other bills introduced by Bagley were:

1. A measure making it a misdemeanor to violate a regulation or ordinance of a park and recreation district. The bill was introduced at the request of the Strawberry Recreation District.

2. A measure allowing community services districts to undertake nuisance abatement proceedings on vacant property creating a fire hazard. The Marinwood Community Services District requested it.

3. A measure transferring title of state-owned title and submerged lands within the Point Reyes National Seashore to the federal government. Fred W. Binnewies, superintendent of the Point Reyes National Seashore, requested the legislation.

4. An urgency measure establishing a flat fee of $25 to be paid to inheritance tax appraisers for appraisal of listed corporate securities over $500,000. Currently the appraisers receive a fee of one-tenth of one per cent of all securities appraised. Under the new bill, an appraiser would receive a $500 fee for appraising the first $500,000 plus a flat $25 for anything over that amount.

San Anselmo Parks Group Delays Actions

Most items before the San Anselmo Park and Recreation Commission last night were deferred because of the impending arrival of Andrew Synder, the city's new park director on Feb. 15. The commission reviewed the county master plan for parks and referred it, with approval, to the city council.

A request by a senior citizens club for the city to provide meeting space in the city was referred to Synder as a top priority item.

Stinson Center Names Officers

Ralph W. Sigmund was elected president of the Stinson Beach Community Center last night to succeed Elting C. Hubbard.

Edward E. Leary was elected vice president, Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, re-elected secretary, and Ruth Miller, re-elected treasurr. The board's next meeting is April 5.

Canoe Class Cut Short As Car, Truck Hit

And indirectly because of that, Mrs. Ruth Grimm Shehi of Mill Valley was injured and Jeffrey Pearce smashed the front end of a Tawns Electric Co. truck.

At 9:55 a.m., Elizabeth Terwilliger of 308 Oakdale Avenue, Mill Valley, was tooling north on Highway 101 in her Volkswagen, towing a trailer loaded with six canoes for the canoeing class. With her was Mrs. Paul White of 63 Homestead Boulevard, Mill Valley.

As they started up the California Park hill, they noticed one of the canoes seemed to be sliding. They stopped to tighten the load, then started up again.

The little car had difficulty accelerating on the hill with the trailer load of canoes. Driving alongside in the inside lane was Mrs. Shehi, of 146 Morningsun Avenue, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Shehi wanted to get into the right lane. She kept driving slower and slower to get behind the canoe trailer.

Pearce, driver for Tawns Electric Co. or San Rafael, was heading up the inside lane at the usual 55 miles per hour. He just couldn't slow down in time.

The truck hit the rear of the Shehi car, then veered to the right. Mrs. Shehi was bleeding from head and mouth as she emerged, but told highway patrolmen she would see her own doctor.

Thieves Get $450 From Tackle Shop

Crowbar wielding burglars pried a rear window of Sausalito Bait and Tackle Shop, Gate 6, Marinship, to carry off about $450 in money and merchandise, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Deputies said Richard Urbais, co-owner, said the break-in was discovered Sunday. The crowbar and a screwdriver were left at the scene, officers said.

Urbais estimated $75 in rolls of change was taken, along with a .22 caliber revolver, three new B-B guns, an adding machine, 10 cases of beer, $30 in change from the cigarette machine, and 15 cartons of cigarettes.

Thornhills Again Splitting Up

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thornhill of San Francisco are splitting up again.

He is owner of George B. Thornhill, Inc., which publishes Marin News and Guide in Sausalito. She is the former wife of Michael Barnato of the Kimberly diamond mining family.

Soon after the Thornhills were married in 1962, he sued her for divorce, charging cruelty. They reconciled. Yesterday, in San Francisco, she sued him for divorce, charging cruelty.

Driver Is Fined, Given Five Days

Kenneth Harold Castle, 26, of 102 Broadmoor Avenue, San Anselmo, was fined $276 and sentenced to five days in county jail yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

He was arrested by San Rafael police Feb. 10, 1964, and had a prior conviction.

Fire Gear Taken

Floyd F. Pendleton of 101 Nova Albion Way, Apt. 12, San Rafael, complained to police yesterday that four fire extinguishers, worth $8 apiece, had been taken from a parking area under his apartment sometime since their installation Jan. 28.

Fete Planned

Bolinas volunteer firemen last night completed plans for the annual ladies' night to be held at 9 p.m. Feb. 20 at Bolinas Community Center, James Dougan, Bolinas Fire Protection District chairman, reported today.

Ring Reported Lost

Diana M. Eilers of 222 Seaview Avenue, San Rafael, a San Rafael High School student, told police yesterday she lost a $60 10 karat gold ring with six garnets after she put it down in the school's art room during the lunch hour yesterday.

Knee Injured As Cars Collide

A 29-year-old San Rafael woman suffered a cut knee and lip when her westbound car ran into the rear of a stopped car in the 100 block of Mission Avenue at 8:24 a.m. yesterday.

Mrs. Patricia R. Germany of 35 Valencia Avenue, Apt. 1, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

Police said she hit a car driven by Howard D. Cohen, 19, of 374 Margarita Drive, San Rafael, when he stopped to let off a passenger. Mrs. Germany was cited for driving with a fogged windshield.

Boat Equipment Reported Stolen

Theft of $450 worth of eqipment, including a $360 ship-to-shore transceiver, from a boat moored at a San Rafael harbor during the weekend was reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Police said the boat is owned by William Anderson of 220 Canal Street, Apt. 10. The theft was reported by Richard J. McCarthy, an employee of San Rafael Marine Repairs Inc., Harbor and Canal streets, where the boat was moored.

Auto Is Stolen

Robert Smith last night told Corte Madera police his turquoise Corvair was stolen from the south side of his apartment house between 6:30 and 9:15 p.m. while he was inside the building at 45 Tamal Vista Drive. He said he had left the keys in the ignition.

Car Hits Deer

Edward Vigno of 693 Hawthorne Drive, Tiburon, reported to Hill Valley police at 10:33 p.m. yesterday that his car struck a deer on East Blithedale Avenue near Camino Alto. Police, investigating, found the deer dead and notified the city street department.

Study Sought On Electronic Toll Booths

A committee of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District wants new toll booths with fancy electronic hook-ups, but no one is exactly sure where they will go.

The bridge's building and operating committee, made up of several bridge directors, voted today to recommend hiring engineers to design new booths with electronic counting devices.

The engineering approval included the specification by director Thomas D. Hardcastle made for a possible second deck on the bridge.

Director Ben K. Lerer of San Francisco also wanted consideration of the proposal that the district might switch to one-way tolls.

Another fly in the district's ointment is the city and county of San Francisco's indecision as to routing of a freeway to the south end of the bridge.

The building and operation committee also approved asking for an engineers proposal to design plans for relocating the bridge's maintenance shop and electric power facilities to the east side of the toll plaza.

nounced targets. Two F100 Supersabres were followed by a pair of F105 Thunderjets and then a pair of F100s.

The planes were similar to those which blasted Communist installations and supply lines in neighboring Laos earlier this year.

The American helicopters shot down today were among 51 flying government troops into action against a guerrilla force operating 30 miles east of Saigon.

Heavy ground fighting was reported. Vietnamese paratroops lost 9 men killed and 38 wounded. Eighteen enemy bodies were counted and military authorities estimated 42 others were killed.

The fighting broke out soon after the United States brought in a battery of deadly Hawk anti-aircraft missiles at Da Nang 350 miles north of Saigon, and declared them ready for use against possible air attacks by Communist pilots.

The rockets were placed around the Da Nang base on orders of President Johnson. Miligary officials anticipated possible Communist reprisals following two days of U.S. and Vietnamese air strikes against North Vietnamese bases.

The battle in which the American helicopters were hit was in the Bing Gia region where more than a thousand Viet Cong rebels battled government troops for a week earlier this year and dealt them their worst defeat of the war.

Charter Study Is Proposed

The need for a new look at the possibility of charter government for Marin County will be studied by the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs, the group's executive board decided last night.

Gilbert Darroch of Strawberry was appointed by federation chairman Jacques Nadler to form a committee from interested civic groups in Marin to study the matter.

The board made its decision after a talk by County Administrator Alan Bruce on the various county charter governments, 12 in all, which now exist in California.

The consensus of the board was that the group should not move too hastily on the question, said Mrs. Mary Henry, secretary.

Improves Slightly

Mrs. Dorothy Hess, 47, of 78 Toyon Drive, Fairfax, was reported "slightly improved" but still in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today. Mrs. Hess's car crashed into a Marin County sheriff's patrol car Saturday in Mill Valley. She suffered a broken nose, knee cuts and a head injury.

GRANVILLE L. BEEDLE
Honor from his bosses

Chamber Manager Honored

Granville L. Beedle, secretary-manager of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce for five years, was presented the chamber's achievement award last night at its annual installation dinner.

He is the first recipient of the honor, which is to be given annually for community interest, support and service.

Beedle, secretary - manager since May, 1960, was presented a plaque by Charles J. Francis, first vice president.

"Mr. Beedle has been active in boy scout, club and church work," said Francis.

"He could be called 'Mr. Chamber of Commerce.' He was born in 1888 but today can run circles around anyone man in this audience. He has lived in Mill Valley more than 25 years."

Beedle was assistant secretary-manager of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce for two years starting in 1915. He first came to Mill Valley in 1922. He stayed until 1924, then moved to Los Angeles where he was a trade association executive and active in chamber of commerce work.

He moved to San Francisco in 1939, and back to Mill Valley in 1940 and has lived there since that time. He was office manager of Westinghouse Air Brake Co. in San Francisco until his retirement in 1953.

Beedle, 76, lives with his wife, Carol, at 25 Renz Road. The Beedles have six grown children and 22 grandchildren.

In accepting the plaque, Beedle said: "I enjoy this work. I never wanted to retire."

Divers' Films Win Honors

Two Marin skin divers, LeRoy French and Al Giddings Jr., took honors in the annual International Underwater Film Festival in Santa Monica Friday and Saturday.

The men own Bamboo Reef stores in San Rafael and San Francisco.

Giddings' film on reefs at Honduras and French's film on night wreck diving were shown by invitation. In addition, Giddings won two gold medals and three honorable mentions in open picture competition and French won two honorable mentions.

Tamalpais High Students Elect

Don Hunter of Mill Valley was elected president of the Tamalpais High School sophomore class yesterday. Henry (Skipper) Lacaze of Stinson Beach was elected vice president; Geoffrey Mayer, Mill Valley, treasurer, and Leslie Hail, Mill Valley, secretary.

Plywood Stolen

Theft of 32 plywood sheets, worth $125, from a Briarwood Drive building site in San Rafael was reported to police yesterday by Kenneth G. Johnson of Concord, foreman for Danbow Builders of San Leandro.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Rose Azevedo, 75, Succumbs

Mrs. Rose S. Azevedo, 75, of 127 Sycamore Avenue, Mill Valley, a life-long resident of Marin County, died early today in a local hospital.

Mrs. Azevedo was taken to the hospital by ambulance after suffering a heart attack at her home, said Asst. County Coroner William C. Bradley. An autopsy was ordered.

Mrs. Azevedo was born and raised in Waldo Point near Sausalito. She married a dairyman, Manuel Simas Azevedo, in 1918, and soon moved to Mill Valley, where she lived in the same house for the past 41 years.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Rose Cunha of Mill Valley, and a grandson.

A Requiem Mass will be offered Friday at 10 a.m. in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Mill Valley. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

and should be given more consideration," Arrigoni said.

Adams suggested hiring of an administrator be put to a vote of the people.

"What are you going to do in the meantime?" Lawrence asked.

Adams suggested appointing a current member of the staff to a pro-tem position to handle the administrator's duties.

Mayor Van Vliet observed the ordinance creating the position was already on the books. It would have to be rescinded in order to have an election, he contended.

After further discussion, the council agreed to explain the need for an administrator to the public next Monday and hear citizens' opinions before filling the job.

the heavy iron gate as the students approached.

Shaking their fists, the rioters shouted wildly:

"Down with American imperialism—this is a provocation!"

The mass protest, following similar demonstrations in Peking and elsewhere, came on the heels of a stern Soviet government statement which warned the United States that reprisal raids could harm Soviet-American relations.

The police began trying to push the charging students off the sidewalk after the protest had gone on for about 25 minutes. The demonstrators struggled back.

Tomales High Repair Plan Due In March

Plans and cost estimates for repair of buildings at Tomales High School should be ready by the March 8 meeting of the Tomales High School District board, architect George Quesada told the board last night.

Voters of the district approved a $175,000 bond issue in January of 1964 to bring the buildings up to earthquake-proof standards.

The work is scheduled for the summer vacation this year, according to Supt. Anthony Matulich.

The board declared one school bus unfit for further work and authorized Matulich to prepare specifications for a new 72-passenger bus to cost approximately $15,000.

Tomales High School District trustees also:

1. Accepted the annual audit report of Dalton, Graupner and Barber, San Rafael accountants.

2. Approved the annual agreement with the Tomales Bay School District for transportation next year.

3. Authorized Matulich to write the Marin County Human Right Commission's education task force, offering the assistance of the Tomales High School District in the study of the rights of minorities in the county.

4. Hired Gary Hutchins, Petaluma High School senior, as part-time janitor in the Petaluma High School's work-education program.

Two More File For School Posts

Two incumbents today filed with the Marin County Schools office for re-election in the April 20 school board elections.

Mrs. Dorothy Brown, 1069 Las Gallinas Avenue, Terra Linda, filed for re-election to the Dixie School District board.

RAY ROBERTS

Ray Roberts of 50 Elm Street, Woodacre, owner of the Forest Knolls Food Market for 17 years, died of a heart attack yesterday while at his second home in Clearlake Highlands. He was 67.

Roberts and his wife, Oma E. Roberts, retired from the grocery business last year, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Moutlon took over the store.

Roberts was born in Cloverdale, Sonoma County. He was a member of the Sonoma Chapter of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He served in the Army during World War I.

He lived in Marin 19 years.

Although he had suffered some illness, his death yesterday was unexpected.

In addition to his wife, he leaves a son, Sr.M./Sgt. Grant Roberts, U.S. Air Force, stationed at Edwards Air Force Base, Kern County; two daughters, Mrs. Frances Rafferty and Mrs. Norene Chadwick of Woodacre; six grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. Inurnment will be private. The family prefers contributions to the Marin County Heart Assn.

who are you?
A person is much more than meets the eye. How deeply have you pondered this question of who you really are? Basically, a man's identity is spiritual. It depends upon God. When you stop to think about it, a clearer idea of who you are can change your life. You're invited to join us for a one-hour talk on this subject by Lenore D. FAMILY AFFAIR—In a recent Fort Baker ceremony, Army. Lt. Charles A. O'Reilly III gets his bars pinned on by his sisters, Mary (left) and Anne, just after he was sworn in by his father, Col. Charles A. O'Reilly Jr. Mary is a student at University of San Francisco, while Anne attends Marin Catholic High School.

New Gold Bars Pinned On In Family Affair

It must have looked like Family Day at Fort Baker recently when Charles A. O'Reilly III was sworn in as a second lieutenant in the United States Army.

Pinning on Lieutenant O'Reilly's gold bars were his sisters, Mary, 18, and Anne, 14. Before that, he was sworn in by his father, Col. Charles A. O'Reilly Jr., chief of staff, Headquarters, Sixth Region, Army Air Defense Command.

The younger O'Reilly was one of the few persons to earn a Regular Army, instead of reserve, commission through the collegiate Reserve Officers Training Corps.

He was graduated from Texas Western College in El Paso, after receiving a medal as the school's outstanding ROTC student in 1963.

Lieutenant O'Reilly has been sent to Fort Sill, Okla. to complete artillery officers' basic training. Afterward, he is scheduled to go through the rigorous airborne and ranger schools at Fort Benning, Ga.

His first tour of duty after training will be in Germany.

Country Club Eyed As Park For Fairfax

There's little likelihood that the City of Fairfax can afford a $1,200,000 park, but the city council last night gave it consideration.

Without the slightest suggestion of speaking with his tongue in his cheek, Councilman George A. Pagni reported the Marin Town and Country Club in Fairfax was "not necessarily for sale but its owners would consider offers."

No gasp of disbelief was heard from the council when Pagni said the tentative sale price on the property was $1,200,000.

Pagni admitted, however, the price was "a little high."

He said he'd like the city to consider how the land could be worked into the city's recreation and park system.

Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. was concerned about the city's control over future use of the area presently zoned commercial.

He said the property could be used for apartments and other commercial uses if the present or future owners wanted to do so.

Councilman Frank Lawrence called the council's attention to the amount of property taxes the city would lose if the land were taken off the tax rolls for public use.

Purchase of the property for a city park and possible city civic center site was urged by Marin County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen in December.

The council referred the matter to the parks and recreation commission for study.

Hospital Group Names Andersen

Dan E. Andersen, City Manager of San Rafael, was re-elecetd president of the San Rafael General Hospital Foundation board last night.

Other officers, also re-elected, are Daniel F. Deedy, vice president; George Henderson, secretary, and Paul R. Leahy, treasurer.

One Race Is Taking Shape For Fire Commissioners

With only two days left until the filing deadline, at least one race appears to be taking shape in the vote for commissioners in the county's seven fire districts. Most of the elections are set for April 6.

The contest is in Tiburon Fire District where incumbents Francis J. Ryan and Raymond Lynch intend to run again. Nomination papers have been taken out by a third, unknown candidate. His filing would make it a three-way race for two seats.

Deadline for filing is noon Thursday.

In the Stinson Beach Fire District, the race appears to be wide open. No one has filed yet for the seat now held by Thomas Tawns, the only one whose term expires.

Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District, with just one term expiring, is combining its election with the April school election. Leonard A. Lewis has filed. He was appointed Friday to replace Elmer R. Smith, who resigned.

Novato, also holding its election April 20, has only one filing so far, that of Kenneth L. Roche, partner in Jim and Ken's TV Service. Incumbent Joseph Wright has not filed.

James Dougan, incumbent in the Bolinas Fire District and Donald J. Taylor and Carl H. Modell, incumbents in the Tamalpais Fire District have filed.

Eyeglasses Link Four To Burglary

A pair of eyeglasses yesterday resulted in linking four Novato junior high school students with the Jan. 29 burglary of Indian Valley Golf Club, sheriff's deputies said today.

William Johansen, juvenile officer, said the glasses were found inside the clubhouse following the break-in through a window. He said investigation revealed they belonged to a 14-year-old youth.

He said the suspect and a companion originally burgled the clubhouse, then told two friends who also broke in.

Johansen said loot including three bottles of liquor, beer and candy, was hidden by the group on a nearby hill and consumed over the past several days. He said one youth, without glasses since the break-in, was in Marin County Juvenile Hall today on a burglary charge.

The other three all aged 13, will be cited to the probation office, he said.

Soldier Turned Over To Military After His Arrest

A 24-year-old soldier, James Edward Wood Jr., turned over to Fort Baker military authorities yesterday after the alleged break-in of Tamalpais Valley Richfield Service Station at Dolan's Corner early Sunday.

He was arrested by sheriff's officers near the station and placed in county jail, but Deputy Dist. Atty. Michael B. Dufficy said no complaint will be filed following assurance by Fort Baker officers that a court martial for Wood will be held, and restitution made to the station.

The station was entered by kicking open a front door. It was ransacked and pennies from a cash drawer strewn on the floor.

A door of Shoreline Drugs, 205 Flamingo Road, near the station, also was kicked in, but there was no entry. Dufficy said burglary was apparently not Wood's objective, but the youth couldn't explain his actions.

Assault Case Figure Sentenced

Tyrone Perry, 21, Marin City man charged with attempted rape of a 16-year-old Belvedere girl last Sept. 13, was given 90 days in Marin County jail yesterday on his guilty plea in Marin Superior Court.

The attempt occurred near Manzanita School. Still pending is judgment for a second participant, Robert Freeman, 21, San Francisco, who pleaded guilty to forcible rape of the girl.

Kentfield Plan Hearing Is Postponed

The second hearing on the Kentfield General Plan by the Marin County Board of Supervisors, scheduled for Thursday night at the Civic Center, has been postponed.

Supervisors re-set the hearing Feb. 23 at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center.

The hearing was postponed because Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenohfen had a conflicting meeting. He will be the speaker at the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce dinner Thursday.

Kettenhofen said he agreed to speak at the chamber meeting before the hearing date was set.

Commute Book Stolen

James M. Lawson reported to Mill Valley police at 5:15 p.m. Sunday that someone stole a pair of binoculars, a flashlight and a Golden Gate Bridge commute book from the glove compartment of his car while it was parked in his carport at 156 Hazel Avenue during the week end.

U.S. Coast Guard is the oldest sea-going service.

Sausalito Pre-School Plan Urged

The citizens advisory committee studying racial imbalance in the Sausalito School District urged the district board of trustees last night to begin a preschool program in September.

The session is sought so that when children enter kindergarten they can all start at the same level of preparedness. It would be on a voluntary basis for children three through five years.

Trustees said they will study the report, the second made by the committee, submitted by chairman Robert Rogers.

Sausalito School District trustees also:

1. Approved a contract with county superintendent of schools office for the outdoor education program at Camp Lokoya, Napa County. The program, originally to run four weeks, will now run three, April 5, April 19 and April 26. It is for fifth and sixth graders, and will cost the district $630 a week.
2. Delayed action until September on reducing the number of kitchens from three to one at Richardson Bay School since cost of the change was estimated at over $2,000.
3. Asked Supt. Marcus F. Davis to report Feb. 23 on advisability of hiring another sixth grade teacher because of high enrollment at Richardson Bay. The board will not meet Feb. 22 because of Washington's Birthday.
4. Approved maternity leave for Mrs. Linda Tamura, fifth grade teacher at Richardson Bay.
5. Set June 28 through July 30, with July 5 a holiday, for summer school.
6. Heard that 940 pupils and 50 adults received tuberculin skin tests yesterday.
7. Approved attendance of Davis and Ralph W. Magnuson, Central-Bayside principal, at a seminar, "Schools for the '60s" at Asilomar March 7-9.

Novato Sanitary Aides To View New Centrifuge

An inspection trip to Winton-Salem, N.C., to see a portable centrifuge in operation was authorized for one board member and the plant superintendent by the Novato Sanitary District board last night.

Expense of the trip will be paid by Bird Machinery Co. of South Walpole, Mass., manufacturer of the machine. Board member George De Tuncq and Plant Supt. George Gasper will probably make the trip.

The board approved sewer plans for Sutter Terrace unit 1 of 41 lots south of Lynwood Park, submitted by the Sutter Development Co., and annexation of five acres off Vineyard Road owned by the Novato Investment Co.

Two Mail Boxes Tampered With

Two Mill Valley residents reported to police Sunday that their mail boxes had been tampered with.

Mrs. Milton J. Schroeder, 338 Edgewood Avenue told police her mail box had been "uprooted" and a fire cracker that did not go off was found in the box. John Lee, 178 Tamalpais Avenue, said his mail box had been "wrecked" and his garden hose cut.

Kentfield Group Says No Extension Needed

Directors of the Kentfield Civic League last night heard recent traffic count figures for the area of Wolfe Grade and Bon Air Road and decided again that the proposed Wolfe Grade extension from Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to Bon Air Bridge was not needed.

The board voted to continue to push for an alternate plan for a driveway from the Wolfe Grade intersection to serve Wolfe Grade School and Marin Catholic High School but not continue between the schools to Bon Air Road.

The board voted to oppose the plan to widen Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to four lanes for a block beyond Wolfe Grade, where it now narrows to two lanes.

President William S. J. Van Erp, said the one-block extension would move the problem only one block and the traffic squeeze there would back cars up into the Wolfe Grade intersection.

Instead, the board said, a raised divider between the two westbound lanes should be built from Wolfe Grade east to Manor Drive, thus forcing cars to chose the correct lane earlier than now.

The board voted in favor of widening the boulevard if it is done for a greater distance than the one block.

Van Erp said the traffic figures from the county public works department showed that on a peak day 3,164 cars come down Wolfe Grade from San Rafael and turn left on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, joining 8,888 cars already headed east on the boulevard.

Only 1,699 turned right on Bon Air Road. Van Erp said there figures indicate the Wolf Grade traffic mainly is San Rafael drivers trying to reach Highway 101 but not wishing to fight congestion in San Rafael.

When access to the highway along Second Street in San Rafael is improved, Van Erp argued, the car count will drop on Wolfe Grade. The few cars now turning into Bon Air Road do not justify extending Wolfe Grade between the two schools, he continued.

Standard time was adopted on November 18, 1883, when nearly 100 "local times" observed in the United States were abolished.

Inter-School Attendance Plan Gains

Trustees of the new Novato Unified School District last night approved in part an agreement with San Rafael High School District for some students from the former San Jose District to continue temporarily at Terra Linda High School.

Under the plan, freshmen from the San Jose portion of the district will attend Novato High School next year. The following year, both the freshmen and sophomores will attend. By taking one class per year, in four years all of the students will be attending Novato high schools.

The board did not approve an agreement for the students to attend summer school.

The new Novato Unified School District board also:

1. Approved a contract with the State Personnel Board for a survey of the classified (non-teaching) positions and salaries in the new district.
2. Approved the 1965-66 School calendar. The school year will start on Sept. 13, having 178 days and ending on June 16.
3. Authorized Supt. James G. Bunker to request the commander of Hamilton Air Force Base for an elementary school site on the base.
4. Approved a contract with architects Rockwell and Banwell to draw plans for a junior high school at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard road.
5. Heard a preliminary estimate from Bernard I. Abrahm, district accountant, that the district might have an income of $5,110,000 during next fiscal year.
6. Adjourned to 8 p.m. Feb. 23 because the regular meeting date is Washington's Birthday.

Freeman Files For School Post

Wendell B. Freeman of 601 Kernberry Drive, Lucas Valley, has filed with the county schools office as a candidate in the April 20 Dixie School District board election. His name was omitted by error from a story in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

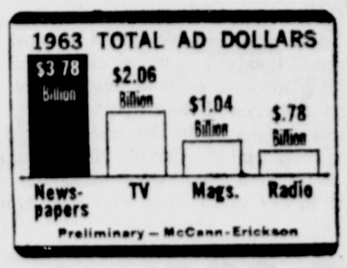

Several words were dropped from the story, resulting in Freeman's name being omitted and incumbent John A. Starkweather, who filed for re-election in the same district, being identified as a General Electric Co. sales manager.

Freeman is a General Electric sales manager. Starkweather is a professor at University of California Medical School in San Francisco.

Building Plans On School List

Plans for rehabilitation of the old main building at San Rafael High School and a name for a new school will be among many topics on a long agenda facing the San Rafael Board of Education tonight.

The board meets at 7:30 p.m. in the former E Street School building.

The new elementary school planned on Canal Street will be the subject of name selection. Until now, the school has been referred to only as the "Canal Street School."

Rehabilitation of main high school building is to begin this summer. Architects Gromme and Priestley will present detailed drawings of the work and cost estimates.

Loma Verde Group Elects

Jack D. Martin was elected vice president; Mrs. Elmer W. Lindsey, recording secretary, Mrs. James A. Swenson, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Arnold Baptist, treasurer.

The new officers took office immediately following the election.

As this was the first meeting since Christmas it was announced that Gino Caralli of 437 Alameda Del Prado was given the revolving plaque for having the best outdoor Christmas decorations.

Fiji Floods

SUVA, Fiji (AP)—Fiji is grappling with widespread floods after a hurricane which devastated villages and flattened copra and banana plantations. The floods followed a torrential rain. In one area near Suva, the rain measured 31 inches in 24 hours.

Councilmen To Look For Club's Glare

Tiburon city councilmen will take a night-time tour of homes near the Belvedere Tennis Club in an attempt to come to a decision on whether the club's light's glare into enighboring homes and yards.

The council, in more than an hour of discussion last night at Del Mar School, could come to no decision on the lights.

It heard E. Joseph Keller, representing the Hawthorne Terrace Property Owners Assn., call the club a "monstrosity."

It heard club member James Murray, an attorney, say he believed the club lights now meet non-glare standards.

It heard a letter from B. D. Dobbs, county planning director, in which he said that the club, with recent placement of louvres over the tennis court lights, now met non-flare standards. "While the lights are obvious, and may have a greater effect on one house than on the other, there is no solid detriment to the neighborhood beyond the relatively small diminution of view," Dobbs wrote.

The club received approval from the county planning commission, before Tiburon's incorporation, to light one court. Murray said last night Dobbs had changed the commission finding to allow lighting of two courts. The lights went on in June, a few days after city incorporation, and within a short time neighbors protested to the city.

Before the latest lighting adjustments by the club, Dobbs had held that the lights caused glare. The Tiburon Planning Commission, before the most recent lighting changes, also found that glare existed.

Councilmen agreed that their decision would be "subjective," and agreed to visit the neighborhood at night and see for themselves. No date was set for the visit.

The Tiburon city council also:

1. Postponed consideration of the drainage pipe to be constructed by Fred G. Zelinsky until a more firm agreement can be made with the City of Belvedere on the liability if the project causes silting in Belvedere Cove.

2. Voted to oppose before the county planning commission a request for expansion of the Paradise Cay yacht harbor, which is outside the city. Plans are for enlargement from 180 to 300 berths and construction of a launching ramp.

3. Turned down a request to expand the Marin Convalescent and Rehabilitation Hospital by 4,500 square feet to allow 80 instead of the present 56-bed maximum, but agreed reapplication could be made after Aug. 1 by which date a citizens advisory planning committee should have had time to study the area. Councilman John S. Hofmire Jr. voted "no" on the motion.

4. Postponed to Feb. 28 consideration of taking over the garbage collection franchise from the Tiburon Sanitary District.

5. Adopted a resolution opposing a San Francisco-Marin bridge through Tiburon and listed six specific reasons for the stand.

6. Adjourned to 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School to complete consideration of the agenda which the council did not finish by its 12:35 a.m. adjournment.

Shooting, Fight Are Reported

A San Rafael youth was treated at San Rafael General Hospital early Sunday after he was hit in the mouth with a pipe or wrench during a fight which reportedly started with gunfire.

Police quoted three youths, all of whom live at 322 Bayview Street, as saying they were shot at by one of several youths in a car which pulled alongside theirs at Irwin Street and Duffy Place.

In the ensuing fight, Richard L. Carroll, 20, was injured. With him were Alexander A. Perry, 27, and Larry R. Minyard, 19, police said.

JUMPING IS NOT FOR HER

Sissie, a year-old Chihuahua, owned by Dennis Dorman of Fort Dodge, La., wound up with two broken front legs when she jumped out of a window recently. One leg is in a cast and the other is in traction. She is shown here with the three four-week-old pups. (UPI Telephoto)

Qualities Teachers Must Have Outlined By Expert

The job of teachers is to help each pupil "be somebody," according to David B. Austin, professor of education at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Austin outlined the qualities a teacher must have to be successful at the Marin Civic Center yesterday, as part of the Bay Area Experiments in Public Education Week program.

Teachers should be "sensitive and alive to human values," and recognize that in each life there lies potential for accomplishment, Austin said.

"From the most discouraging background can come young people who prove to have tremendous ability," he said.

Teachers also should be aware of what makes a child "tick" and be aware that the opinion of his fellow pupils is a prime factor in determining what a child will learn, he said.

The teacher also should have an "honest and deep seated respect for all people."

There is a shortage of teachers really interested in working with children with less than average intelligence and motivation, Austin said.

The real purposes of education are to the end that students will have respect for the truth, that students learn that human life is sacred and worthy of respect, and that they walk in paths of virtue with a balance between pride and humility, Austin said.

The four-day conference, sponsored by the San Rafael city schools and the Marin County schools office, continued today with seven group discussions throughout Marin.

Tax Measure Title Sought By Rowland

P. J. Rowland, president of the Marin County Taxpayers' Assn., today announced he has filed with the secretary of state for an official title a petition which he proposes to introduce as an initiative.

The petition is in behalf of Rowland's proposal that counties be limited to raising not more than 25 per cent of their total budgets by property tax. The remainder would be collected by means of a statewide gross sales and transaction tax.

The act shall be set up by the State Legislature and administered by a state taxing agency. Exempt from taxation under such an act shall be mortgage, loan and budget payments, wages, salaries, fees, bonuses or commissions.

As soon as the official title has been designated for the petition, it will be circulated for signatures, Rowland announced.

British Columbia Program Set Friday

Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Dunshee of Ross will narrate a program of slides entitled "Wilderness Country of British Columbia" at 8 p.m. Friday in room 40 at the College of Marin in Kentfield. The public meeting is sponsored by the Marin Nature Group.

The group will make a field trip to Bolinas and Duxbury Point Sunday, leaving from College of Marin's Circle Drive at 10:30 a.m.

Drainage Control Program Presented

Master plan for control of drainage and sediment in Lagunitas and Walker creeks was presented to the Marin County Soil Conservation District board yesterday by a representative of the George S. Nolte consulting civil engineering firm.

The board agreed to postponed action on the plan pending review and revision of wording which will be discussed at the next meeting, at 10 a.m. March 8 in the Soil Conservation Service office in Point Reyes Station.

Officers' Speaker

Col. Joseph L. Stromme (USAF Ret.) will speak to the Marin County Retired Officers Assn. at its meeting March 4 at the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers Club. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m. with dinner at 7:30 p.m.

THE END OF A PUZZLE

This giant tree, 85 feet tall, lies across a good portion of San Rafael's new city hall property east of the city library. William Vaning, San Rafael tree superintendent, lops it into sections with a chain saw while his assistant, Roger Courbin, in distance, trims the branches. The tree is known as a Monkey Puzzle Tree, fairly rare in this area.

Tank Bursts Into Flame, Oil Burns

A 10,000 gallon oil tank burst into flame at the Basalt Rock Co., Inc., at McNear Point last night. Marin County firemen were able to prevent it from spreading to nearby tanks containing 28,000 gallons of oil.

Mairn County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom estimated damage at $1,000, saying it was concentrated in a furnace room containing motors, wiring and switching panels.

Bloom said the blaze started near the control head of a burner used to heat the tank. It may have been caused by a short circuit or a backfire, he said.

The tank was about half full after the fire was put out, and neither firemen nor company officials were sure today how much oil was consumed by the flames.

The oil is a kind used in the asphalt process, and is kept hot 24 hours a day. Surrounding the tank is a cluster of tanks holding 23,000 gallons of oil. Another tank with 5,000 gallons of diesel oil, used to fuel the furnace, is close by.

Four trucks sped to the firm's hot mix plant at 10:36 p.m. and San Rafael firemen were alerted to stand by in case their help was needed. It was brought under control in 15 minutes, however.

Trustees Discuss West Marin Costs

Trustees of West Marin School District last night took no action of a proposed school expansion program that would cost about $35,000.

Supt. Howard F. Brose recommended construction of a new kindergarten and conversion of the present kindergarten into a combination library and classroom.

He backed pay-as-you-go financing. Board members, however, generally thought a bond issue would be better. No decision was made.

The board approved an application for state aid in purchase of a new school but next year to replace one of the district's two buses. Both are 12 years old. The second will have to be replaced in about two years, Brose said.

The board met in closed session and approved a three-year contract for Brose. He said today that the contract does provide a pay increase, but he did not want to give details until the board acts on it formally at its March 8 meeting.

The board also discussed a pupil disciplinary problem in closed session, Brose said.

Trustee Gus Kovats announced that he would not seek reelection April 20. Trustee Charles A. Reilley said several weeks ago that he would not run again. Trustee Robert Gallagher will seek another term.

Two-District Unification Gets Backing

The Kentfield School District board by 3-2 vote last night put itself in support of the two-district unification plan for the area of Tamalpais High School District.

The vote, as with similar votes in the past, saw trustees Lawrence Goldberg and Mrs. Mary E. Bingham opposed. They have favored unification of the entire Tamalpais District area into one district.

The board majority was led by John R. B. Ellis, who argued that the district as a whole would be too big for any community of interest, and therefore there could be no general support for programs or election issues.

Corlet and Spackman, architects of San Francisco, were awarded a contract to draw plans for construction of shower and locker rooms, remodeling of the multi-use room and shop, and construction of a store room at Adaline E. Kent School, and for remodeling a classroom into a library and remodeling the bus shed into a storage room at Greenbrae School.

The board voted to continue the present program of special counseling and teaching for educationally handicapped students, but voted to ask state reimbursement for the district expenses.

A gift of a new television set by Lionel M. Harwin of Melody Radio and Television, San Rafael, was accepted for use at Wolfe Grade School.

Heroin Smuggle Figures Arraigned

A San Quentin Prison inmate and two others, all charged with conspiracy to smuggle heroin into the prison, were arraigned in Marin Superior Court yesterday and entry of pleas was scheduled for 10 a.m. Monday.

They are Jesus Gonzales, the inmate; Joseph Matthew Herman, 57, Mill Valley, former employee of the prison, and Frances Baeza, 44, Los Angeles.

Doctor's Car Looted

Dr. Frank A. Lowe of 1668 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, told police Saturday that a $46.50 blood pressure measuring device, was stolen from his unlocked sedan, parked at Terra Linda Valley Hospital in the last week of January.

Burglary Suspect Taken To Hospital

Thomas Walter Larke, 28, suspect in burglaries of National Cash Register Co., at 4270 Redwood Highway in San Rafael, was taken from county jail to Napa State Hospital yesterday for 72-hour observation.

Deputies said Larke, 68 Olivet Street, San Anselmo, admitted he had "seizures." San Rafael police said Larke, already facing a southern California grand theft charge, allegedly took cash registers, parts and electronic gear from the cash register company last year.

Teaching Methods Will Be Discussed

Dr. William C. Jordan, assistant superintendent of elementary education in the San Rafael school, will discuss new methods of teaching children to read at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Granada School, 50 El Camino Drive, Corte Madera.

The meeting, sponsored by the Reed School District, will be open to the public. Dr. Jordan, who holds a doctor's degree in education from Harvard University, will discuss voice typewriters and words-in-color systems.

Street Signs Asked By County

Members of the San Geronimo Valley Assn. agreed last night to ask the county to provide street signs for the roads winding among the foothills of the valley which are now unmarked.

Members named Mrs. Albert Schivo of Forest Knolls to head a nominating committee to recommend a new slate of officers at the March 15 meeting.

Gordon C. Davenport, San Rafael manager of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., reported rising costs in the company will require a rate increase for valley residents in 18 to 20 months. He estimated that private telephone rates could go up as much as $1.80 a month.

B-B Vandalism Reported To San Rafael Police

Five weekend cases of vandalism, most involving B-B holes through windows, were reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Holes were shot through windows at the United California Bank, Third and Cijos streets, L. C. Smith Building Materials, 124 Belvedere Street, and a vacant store at the Harbor Shopping Center on Belvedere Street.

Damage at the building materials store was $45, according to Michael B. Smith of the firm, while Orville D. Russell of the shopping center said the window there was worth $75.

Five windshields were shot out on the lot of Annex Motors, 1826 Fourth Street, according to co-owner Clifford E. Jackson. He said two red leather seats from a sports car were stolen also.

Vandalism was reported at a construction site at 914 Mission Avenue. Eugene C. Julian of Napa, foreman for Kubon Construction Co., said fresh plaster was damaged, an electrical cord was destroyed and planks were dropped from a scaffold.

Mead, 7 Napa Avenue, Fairfax, allegedly forged two $70 checks drawn on the San Rafael General Hospital and two $110 checks, one passed at the Bourbon Shop in Northgate Shopping Center and the other at Nave Lanes in Ignacio, both on Nov. 12.

Probation Given In Forgery Case

Gay LaVonne Montague, 19, of San Anselmo was placed on two years probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court on her guilty plea to two counts of forgery.

Two other counts were dismissed. The suspect, of 339 San Anselmo Avenue, forged two $166.29 checks on Nov. 14 with intent to defraud San Rafael General Hospital.

Two Items

Sausalito City councilmen will meet at 8 p.m. today in city hall to reappoint members to the community appearances advisory board and to approve warrants. These are the sole items on the agenda.

Burglary Case Trial Date Set

March 30 is date for jury trial in Marin Superior Court of William Harvey Switzer, 21, and Michael William Plunkett, 24, both charged with two counts of burglary.

Switzer, San Anselmo Hotel, and Plunkett, of 64 Barber Avenue, San Anselmo, allegedly burgled Jean's Bit O'Bohemia, 607 San Anselmo Avenue, and the Gourmet Nutrition Shop, 609 San Anselmo Avenue, on Jan. 6.

Colorado River Dispute Ends

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Peace has come to the banks of the Colorado River, with California and Arizona reaching a compromise to end their lengthy dispute over the precious water.

Developments in Sacramento and Washington yesterday confirmed that the two states finally will present a united front in asking congressional approval of a plan that would:

—Begin a program of water development in several Southwest states that will take years and cost billions.

—Guarantee California enough water from the river to avert what state officials say would be a crisis in populous Southern California sometime after 1970.

—Enable Arizona to proceed with its multi-billion-dollar Central Arizona Project to funnel Colorado River water to irrigate farmland.

The Arizona and California delegations in the House planned to introduce bills to carry out the compromise, made possible when Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., agreed to it. Hayden is chairman of the key Senate Appropriations Committee which passes on all water projects.

He said in a letter to the California congressional group that he "shall not fail to remind the President that each of our states is in great need for more water and that we are in basic agreement as to how it should be obtained."

Hayden said he would back the compromise if it reached the Senate from the House, and was hopeful of action before the current session ends.

Also yesterday, Sen. Thomas Kuchel, R-Calif., introduced the compromise plan in the upper house. He commented:

Key points of the compromise plan:

—California would be guaranteed its current 4.4 million acre-feet of water until an additional 2.5 million acre-feet has been added to the river's flow from other sources. The secretary of interior would be ordered to report within three years on how this could be done.

—The Central Arizona Project would be authorized, along with Bridge and Marble Canyon dams on the Colorado.

—One major difference between the Kuchel bill and earlier proposals is that construction of facilities to bring in the added 2.5 million acre-feet would not be immediately authorized.

Clausen Introduces Fisheries Measure

Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-Crescent City, has introduced a bill in Congress to preserve and restore salmon, steelhead and striped bass fisheries.

The bill provides 25 million dollars in a five-year period, to be matched with a similar amount of local funds for construction of fish ladders, fish hatcheries and other devices to permit the passage of anadromous fish as well as habitat research and enhancement.

Air Force Talk

Robert C. Baughan, state president of the Air Force Assn., will address the Novato chapter at a luncheon Thursday noon at Nave Lanes in Novato.

Assemblyman Seeking Stronger Brown Act

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation aimed at opening more governmental meetings to the press and public has been introduced by a San Francisco Republican.

Assemblyman Milton Marks sponsored a measure yesterday that requires all meetings of committees and subcommittees of law-making bodies on the local level to be open to the public "except during discussion of certain personnel matters."

The bill resulted from a special Assembly Interjm Committee on Government Organization that suggested a tightening of laws aimed at preventing secret meetings of governing bodies.

The committee promised to close gaps in the Brown Act, a law that requires city, county and state agencies to open most of their meetings to the public.

Marks said he had many cosigners on the bill and "am hopeful that both parties will support this measure. Of course we expect some opposition, but it should have enough backing to pass the legislature."

The assemblyman said violations of the Brown Act usually "are not willful attempts to deprive the people of their right to know what is going on in their government."

"However, we are concerned over several loopholes in the act which have been used as a means of getting around the open meeting requirements."

Marks said when personnel matters were discussed the secret meetings should be permissible.

"However," he added, "the public and the press must be informed of what matters will be brought under discussion before any doors are closed."

Marks said there was no legislative power that could prevent county, city or even state bodies, from discussing various programs "during a lunch or in a private meeting, but we want to bring out into the open as much of the government's work as possible."

The Marks bill requires that any executive session of a legislative body be held during a previously scheduled meeting, and that a notice of any such meetings be made public.

"There has been a move in the past," Marks said, "to bypass the open meeting law by setting up special subcommittees or committees. This is something we want to stop. We want to plug all the holes in the open meeting law."

Another section of the Marks bill would permit all governmental employes to demand a public hearing of personnel matters affecting them.

Under present law governmental agencies may discuss personnel matters in private.

Lawmaker Says Professors Facing Second Cut In Pay

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State college professors will face a second pay cut next year similar to the one due to hit them soon, contends Assemblyman William F. Stanton, D-San Jose.

Stanton said yesterday he has learned that the college administration's mistake responsible for a recent 1.8 per cent salary reduction ordered for top professors also will affect next year's budget.

It would mean a cut of three-tenths of 1 per cent for the 1965-66 academic year, he said.

State college trustees ordered the current wage reduction because previously granted pay raises would have put the 18-campus budget in the red, because of a miscalculation. Legislators are considering a special appropriation to avoid the reduction.

Stanton, a former San Jose State College professor, said "the amount requested in Gov. Brown's . . . budget is not adequate to even maintain present salary scales."

Pleads Guilty

Robert Lee Oates, 47, of Villa Rafael Inn, San Rafael, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court yesterday to passing a worthless check Sept. 30 with intent to defraud San Rafael Inn, 865 Francisco Boulevard. Judgment is March 1.

'TIME OF THE CUCKOO'

Against a Venetian backdrop, Hal Fenton and Rita Knox co-star in the Ross Valley Players' "Time of the Cuckoo," which will open Thursday night in the Barn at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross. Performances are scheduled Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays through Feb. 27, with curtain at 8:30 p.m.

Growth Predicted, New City Or Not

One hundred eighteen thousand more people will elbow their way into southern Marin County within 15 years whether Marincello is built or not, Mrs. Vera Schultz, consultant for Marincello developers, predicted today.

Marincello is an ideal way to provide living space, recreation, non-commute jobs and other needs for at least 25,000 of the newcomers, Mrs. Schultz told the Marin County Real Estate Board. What is more, she said, the 2,200-acre planned community should repay the county almost three million dollars a year more in taxes than it will cost in government services.

"My advocacy of Marincello is in complete consistency with my longtime efforts to preserve the beauty of Marin County," declared the former county supervisor. "Three things are inevitable: death, taxes and growth. I am a realist."

The clustered high-rise apartments which are to absorb the bulk of Marincello's population will cover only 4 per cent of the land, she said, and will all be hidden below the hills from Highway 101 and the rest of the county. "I think it is going to mark a change in the development of Marin County because it does preserve open space," she stressed.

Marincello "isn't just another bedroom community to add to school costs and government services without reimbursing the government, Mrs. Schultz reiterated. She recited surveys showing that a single-family home must have almost $60,000 market value before its taxes pay for the government services it receives; a town house must be in the $35-$40,000 range, and only apartment developments more than pay their own way, governmentally.

"If Marin County continues to develop a fragment at a time—a lot at a time—we will ruin Marin County," declared Mrs. Schultz.

Ex-Labor Aide Ruled Suicide

WASHINGTON (AP)—The death of Philip R. Rodgers, one-time chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, has been ruled a suicide.

Rodgers, 49, was found yesterday in the garage of his home in suburban Bethesda, Md. There was a bullet wound in his chest, and a rope around his neck.

Dr. John G. Ball, deputy medical examiner for Montgomery County, said Rodgers died from the gunshot wound, and called it a suicide.

A native of Bountiful, Utah, Rodgers was named NLRB chairman in 1955 by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower. His term on the board ended in mid-1963. He has since been serving as minority counsel of the House Education and Labor Committee.

He is survived by his widow, Mildred.

No Novato Grading Hearing —Notices Weren't Mailed

The Novato Planning Commission did not consider the first grading plan under the city's new grading ordinance last night after all — because the planning staff discovered too late it had not mailed notices to owners of nearby property.

The commission therefore continued until Feb. 15 consideration of the plan, submitted by K.D.N. Corp. for Kaden Park No. 2.

The commission approved a use permit and architectural plans for a Lutheran Church on three acres between San Carlos Way, San Marin Drive and Novato Boulevard.

The plans call for a chapel of 2,200 square feet and 1,000 square feet of classrooms, costing approximately $120,000, as the first building.

The Novato Planning Commission also:

1. Approved rezoning from multiple to planned residential for 115,000 square feet on South Novato Boulevard, south of Nave Shopping Center, requested by Richard Connell.
2. Gave architectural approval for plans for a 1,500-square foot addition to the A. and R. Garage at 862 Vallejo Avenue submitted by Horace Allen.
3. Continued until Feb. 15 consideration of a lot split on Diablo Avenue adjacent to Warner Creek asked by Louis Braz-Dias, and of rezoning from multiple to single family of four and a half acres at Cherry and Armstrong streets, owned by Ralph T. McGrath.

Hubcap Thieves Hit Two Autos' Owners

Two sets of hubcaps were reported stolen in San Rafael during the weekend, according to police.

Glenn E. Muttersbach of 123 Lochinvar Road, said four hubcaps, were taken from his Falcon sedan. William V. MacCarthy of 320 Riviera Drive said four hubcaps were taken from his 1965 Oldsmobile.

Mrs. Alice Leonesio Resigns In Fairfax

The resignation of veteran Fairfax City Clerk Mrs. Alice Leonesio was accepted "with sorrow" by the Fairfax City Council last night.

The meeting was the last which Mrs. Leonesio, who has been taking minutes as city clerk since 1943, will attend as clerk. Her resignation will be effective Feb. 28.

Her assistant, Mrs. Frances Lestanguet, was in the audience, taking notes "for practice," but the council took no action to replace Mrs. Leonesio, pending decision on hiring a city administrator.

At the end of the meeting, shortly after 11 p.m., councilmen and audience stood and applauded Mrs. Leonesio.

The Fairfax City Council Also:

1. Accepted the resignation of Isadore Rosenthal, park and recreation commissioner, and asked for volunteers for the job.
2. Referred to the park and recreation commission a request from the Little League for the city to help keep the ball field clean. The city owns the field, but the Little League operates it.
3. Set for 8 p.m. March 8 a public hearing on a request from Farr and Associates for rezoning for planned unit development 9.8 acres between Olema Road and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. The planning commission denied the request last month.
4. Denied a request of Nyal D. Worsham, director of the spring recreation program, to grant a six-month business license to the Marin School of Self Defense which has been asked to hold a series of low-cost judo lessons for boys through the recreation department. Business licenses, according to city ordinance, are issued on a yearly basis.
5. Postponed discussion of a modified lease on the city-owned Fairfax Women's Club until the March 8 meeting.
6. Hired Gurnie L. Cook, one of the top three in an examination for police patrolman, to start work as patrolman March 1 at $505 per month, succeeding Manuel Azevedo, who is retiring the end of this month. The council also certified the other two top scorers in the examination as eligible for appointment. They are George Adams and Steven Lorillard.
7. Approved purchase of six revolvers, holsters and pairs of handcuffs for reserve policemen, to cost $576.03.
8. Approved the fire department's request to remove two Italian cypress trees from in front of the city hall.
9. Agreed no business license was required for Scappy Jim's auto wrecking company of Petaluma to remove abandaned cars from the city at police department request.
10. Waived license fee for Roman Catholic school students getting subscriptions to the Monitor later this month.
11. Approved encroachment request from Myron Brown for construction of a retaining wall on Woodland Road, as recommended by the planning commission, and encroachment request of Roy K. Mobert, 104 Tamalpais Road,to allow parking of two cars and a truck on city property.
13. Referred to Robert Nelson, city engineer, a suggestion to have encroachment permits, which are revokable at any time, reviewed at will by the city engineer and city administrator instead of by the planning commission every two years.
14. Supported the City of Tiburon's request that the Navy and Interior Departments seek solution of the berthing facility problem at the Oceanographic Research Laboratory on the Tiburon peninsula.

Novato Council Faces Routine Agenda Tonight

Routine business awaits the Novato City Council at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

The council is scheduled to authorize a State Finance Department population estimate, which can be used as the basis for various state subventions based on population.

Acceptance of Sunset Parkway reconstruction and of Novato Hills Unit 1 subdivision are scheduled.

Public hearings are slated on rezoning of Gnoss Estates from agricultural to single-family dwelling, and of 20 acres belonging to Harry Heifetz between Novato Creek and Scottsdale from agricultural to planned commercial. Final passage is an ordinance changing the city administrator's title to city manager also is scheduled.

Contractor Gets Fine Of $3,000

Fine of $3,000 and four years probation were imposed on Gerald C. Kott, Mill Valley building contractor, yesterday in Marin Superior Court for receiving stolen goods.

Kott, 39, of 361 Cascade Drive, had a mobile air compressor and a trailer stolen from Elmer J. Freethy Co. of El Cerrito in his possession when arrested last Oct. 17 by sheriff's officers in an isolated area at the end of Ridgewood Road in Homestead Valley.

Deputies said the compressor, trailer, and a $7,500 backhoe tractor had vanished from a construction site near Richardson Bay Bridge.

Addition To Motel Is Rejected

Addition to the non-conforming Meadowsweet Motel was turned down, 3-1, last night by the Corte Madera Planning Commission.

Applicant George R. Furness had asked to be allowed to build a living quarters for the manager of the motel, but the commission ruled the town ordinance does not allow additions to buildings which do not already conform to the zoning.

The dissenting vote came from Albert J. Boro, who was a member of the board of adjustment advising Furness to present his problem to the full commission.

On the proposal for wrecking and auto parts yard on the site of the Holtzinger Brothers Dump, at the end of Talley Alley, the commission set site inspection Feb. 27 and a public hearing March 8.

The commission approved town purchase of 24 acres of tidelands, to be bought jointly by the town with the Marin Conservation League for $12,000. Commissioner Harold B. Wagstaff voted against the purchase, saying he believed the zoning for light industry, would be counter to a strict conservation use.

Quickly approved was the design for a two-room addition to the San Clemente School.

Commissioner Norman Eaton was absent.

Shopping Center Wreck Hurts One

Mrs. Geraldine McNamara, 54, of 1105 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, was reported in good condition at Marin General Hospital today after the car in which she was riding was struck broadside in the Bon Air Shopping Center parking lot, Larkspur, about 11:50 a.m. Friday.

Larkspur police said Gregory G. Sarno, 18, of Davis, was driving east on an access road and Albert C. McNamara, 62, was driving north in a lane in the lot. The two cars collided in the intersection. Mrs. McNamara was a passenger with her husband.

No Pay Hikes Due Fairfax

Fairfax city employees will get no raise in salaries for the next six months.

Councilman Robert R. Souza, who with Councilman Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. comprise the city council's salary committee, reported last night that they had kept the city's promise to review salaries in January, six months after a 2.5 per cent salary increase was granted by the council.

Souza said no increase was justified now because salaries of Fairfax's classified employees were comparable to those in other cities in Marin County.

Ash Wednesday is March 3.

THE SMALL ONES RATE BIG AT T.I.

When you buy property, your title order—large or small —rates the same fast, accurate, impartial service

One of the biggest events in your life is when you buy a home. (It's also the biggest investment most of us ever make!) That's why it is so important to make sure your ownership rights are fully protected by instructing your real estate broker to send the title insurance order to T.I.

You can be sure your title order will receive the same painstaking care and attention at T.I. as the largest order insuring a commercial or industrial project It will be handled by the most highly trained staff of title specialists in America, working with the finest title facilities in the business. In fact, no other title company has complete and up-to-date land records available in 41 California counties. And no other title company can offer you fast service anywhere in the state with just one local phone call.

Most experienced property buyers, real estate brokers, developers, builders and lending institutions choose T.I. for title service as a matter of course. They know they can depend on T.I.'s speed, thoroughness, accuracy and impartiality -qualities which have distinguished T.I. since 1893.

It pays to specify T.I.–the number one brand of title insurance–when you buy property.

$20,000 Blaze Damages Boat

Flames billowed from a 52-foot cutter moored at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon and did $20,000 damage to the forward section of the boat early today.

The fire demolished the interior of the forward part, which includes the galley, and broke through the deck above. Tiburon Fire Chief Frank J. Buscher was investigation today to find the cause of the fire.

Boat owner E. H. DeFrees of 135 Stewart Drive, Tiburon, said the fire may have been caused by a short-circuit in wiring.

Th eobta, the Yankee Pedler, was valued at $50,000. De Frees had sailed it to Mexico and through the Panama Canal.

The cutter was moored at a yacht club pier so that Tiburon firemen had to pull out 900 feet of hose to reach it from the pumper truck parked near the yacht club entrance.

No one was on board when the fire brok out, firemen reported. A resident on a Belvedere hill above the yacht club, saw the flames and phoned firemen at 4:25 a.m.

Twenty-six men from the Tiburon department helped fight the blaze which was out minutes after hoses arrived. Sixteen men from the Belvedere Fire Department stood by in case aid was needed.

Mill Valley Parks Group To Survey Steps, Lanes

Mill Valley Parks and Recreation commissioners agreed last night to survey some of the city's crumbling steps and lanes to reach a recommendation at their March 8 meeting as to which should be classed as "arterial."

Commissioners believe some steps and lanes should be so classified since they afford accessibility to the mountain for recreational use, reported chairman Dean Meyer.

The commission agreed to ask City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer for specifications on the steps so that costs for repairs can be estimated. Should the city classify some steps as arterial, the city would improve and maintain them.

The commission re-elected Meyer to a second term as chairman and Commissioner Jerome C. Hauke as vice chairman, and welcomed new commissioners Jean Barnard and James Rutledge. The commission will not meet Feb. 22 because of Washington's Birthday. The next meeting will be March 8.

Burglars Get Small Change At Laundry Safe

Burglars bent on breaking into the safe at the Fairfax French Laundry, 101 Bolinas Road, Sunday night, had to settle for small change from a soft drink machine.

The burglary was reported at 6:25 a.m. today by laundry employees Elmer Holler of 33 Merwin Avenue, Fairfax, and Ralph Lewis of 22 Merrydale Road, Los Ranchitos.

The thieves entered the laundry through a vent in the ceiling and lowered themselves to the floor down a boiler pipe.

Fairfax Police Sgt. Andy Grimes said desk drawers in the office were searched and the safe's outer and inner walls were punctured with a chisel, pounded into the safe with a rubber-headed hammer.

Terra Linda High Band Concert Set

The Terra Linda High School Band will present its mid-winter concert Thursday evening and not tonight as incorrectly reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

The program, ranging from symphony to novelty music, will begin at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

3:16 p.m., San Anselmo—Fire in motor of car owned by Robert Brogioli, 324 The Alameda, when started at Sir Francis Drake High School parking lot; caused by backfire through carburetor with no air filter, blistered paint on hood; $25 damage.

3:37 p.m., San Anselmo—Burning insulation caused by short circuit in electric stove at home of Fred Rosenberg, 176 Hilldale Drive; $25 damage.

4:08 p.m., San Rafael—Fire in motor of car owned by Barbara Ward of 25 Oak Springs Drive, San Anselmo, caused by carburetor overflowing with no air filter; $200 damage.

10:36 p.m., McNear's Point—Fire of undetermined cause in 10,000 gallon oil tank at Basalt Rock Co., Inc., did $1,000 damage to furnace room, motors, wiring and switching panels. Four county fire trucks responded; San Rafael units stood by.

TODAY:

1:58 a.m., San Anselmo—Fire between motor and firewall in car owned by Russell Bonnett, 306 Forest Avenue, Fairfax, after accident at 1302 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard; fire damage minor.

4:25 a.m., Tiburon—Fire of undetermined origin did estimated $20,000 damage to ketch owned by E. H. DeFrees of 135 Stewart Drive, Tiburon, while moored at Corinthian Yacht Club.

Lucas Valley Road Work Plans Studied

The Marinwood Parks and Recreation Commission last night reviewed two plans for widening of Old Lucas Valley Road along Miller Creek.

Commissioners are seeking an alignment that will preserve the creek area between Old and New Lucas Valley roads as open space.

Commissioner Walter Vangelder said San Rafael City Planner George H. Rogers and a representative of Marin Master Builders, which is planning a subdivision along the south side of Old Lucas Valley Road, participated in the discussion.

The two plans were to be checked today by the county planning and public works departments and presented to the San Rafael Planning Commission tonight.

The proposed subdivision is Twelve Oaks Hills Unit 5 within the City of San Rafael. Commissioners hope that land for road widening will come from the subdivision rather than from creek land.

Trial Starts For Suspect Of Stabbing

Trial of Robert S. Perez, 29-year-old San Quentin inmate charged with stabbing a cellmate last June 10, began today with jury selection in Marin Superior Court.

Perez, defending himself, allegedly stabbed Edward Joseph Montoya, 24, in both lungs with a knife made of metal straps bound with tape.

Prison officials said Perez told them Montoya, serving time for lewd and lascivious conduct, provoked the attack by making improper advances.

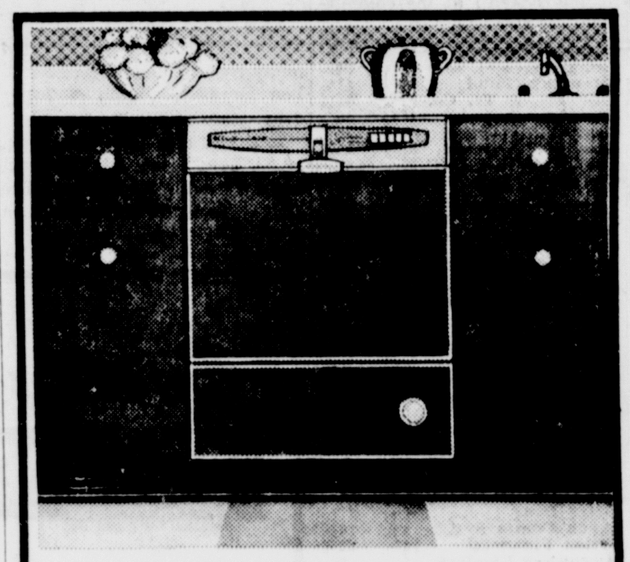

Donald E. Paterson, deputy district attorney, is prosecuting before Judge Samuel W. Gardiner.

Seminary Plans Alumni Conference

Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at Strawberry is host to a conference for alumni, area pastors and military chaplains today through Thursday.

Theme of the meeting is "Southern Baptists in California." It will include seminars for ministers on Christian marriage, archaeology and the church, Christian faith and social responsibility, pastoral ministry, and alcoholism.

Tours of U.N. building are held daily.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

New Specialized Firm Cleans Stoves, Flues For Fire Safety

A new specialized business—Empire Exhaust Co.—that has nothing to do with mufflers or smog devices, is that of Harold W. Cook Jr., 42 Bolinas Road, Fairfax.

Cook's occupation is cleaning stoves and flues in restaurants —also in homes, but every year there are several kitchen fires in Marin restaurants. Many of them could be prevented with equipment kept free from grease.

He is on call 24 hours a day and can be reached through Ace Answering Service, San Anselmo. Fire prevention work, adjustments, complete cleaning and monthly check-up service.

TWO MARIN RESIDENTS — Al Bianchi of Point Reyes and Armin Truttman of Olema — have been elected secretary and state board representative respectively to serve the American Dairy Assn. of California's third district which covers Sonoma, Marin, Napa, Solano, Yolo, Lake and Mendocino Counties.

President of the third district this year is William Lawrence of Petaluma; vice president is Clifford Orr of Santa Rosa. Annual meeting of the association will be held Feb. 23-24 in Fresno.

A "HIGH RISE" UNDERTAKING of Parrish Concrete Pumping Co. of Novato has recently been cited by Daily Pacific Builder (Jan. 27).

This firm, working on the new 15-story Central Tower Apartments, San Francisco, was given the job of lifting lightweight concrete used for floor topping throughout the building. Their pumping operation began at the third floor and went clear to the top, supplying 25 yards of concrete an hour. It was "squeezed" up a tube like toothpaste.

Jacob

The firm opened at 1092 Simmons Lane last summer and has been active in this type of work in several parts of the Bay Area. Also in Marin — but not in high rise work here. D. L. Parrish, president, and R. L. Hudelson, vice president, have been doing this type of work about 25 years.

WILLIAM JACOB of Larkspur has been appointed vice president of Goodrich and Snyder, Inc., public relations firm, at its San Francisco office. He was previously with McGraw-Hill Publications, and has spent 11 years as publications editor, advertising agency account executive and public relations consultant. Goodrich and Snyder is opening a new office in Honolulu this month.

NEW ADDITIONS to the staff of Redwood Realtors, San Rafael are Peter J. Durkin of Country Club and Robert McCluggage of Sausalito. Durkin was formerly with Tamalpais Insurance Agency; McCluggage was previously working on Peacock Gap properties—first under Chinn Ho and later with Fox and Carskadon.

ANNUAL MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE of the California Savings and Loan League at Palm Springs this week is being attended by R. Keith and Esther M. Dearth, president and executive vice president of Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn., and Jordan L. Martinelli, president, and Fred F. Enemark, executive vice president of Marin County Savings and Loan Assn.

FORMER SAN Anselmo resident Edward A. Forde Jr., vice president of the Dillingham Corp. which is active in construction in Hawaii and several foreign countries, will be in charge of a new subsidiary known as Dillingham Construction Corp. The latter will expand construction activities on the U.S. mainland and will be headquartered in San Francisco. Forde is returning from Honolulu where he has been assistant vice president of Hawaiian Dredging and Construction Co., another Dillingham subsidiary.

DONALD J. KERR of Novato, district representative for Aid Association for Lutherans, has received a gold pin award and certificate of merit for completing five years of service.

ROBERT C. BURGEE of Larkspur has been appointed advertising manager of California Casualty Indemnity Exchange, which has offices throughout the state. Burgee has been with the company since 1961 in sales, public relations and advertising capacities. Previously he was with State Farm Insurance and Acme Steel Co.

ERIC TAINTER, Larkspur representative for Franklin Life Insurance Co., has earned membership in the 1965 Franklin Million Dollar Conference and will attend its big sales seminar in San Juan, Puerto Rico, next month.

It's June In January For This Airline

NEW YORK — January, historically for airlines a month of doldrums, bloomed like June at least for Trans World Airlines.

TWA reported its traffic was the greatest for any January, particularly in international air freight. More than 5,017,000 ton miles, representing a 40 per cent increase over January 1964 when 3,573,000 ton miles were flown.

Domestic freight ton miles showed a 31 per cent rise as 9,656,000 ton miles were flown compared to 7,356,000 ton miles the previous January.

Record passenger traffic also was reported with 688,147,000 revenue passenger miles flown throughout TWA's domestic and trans Atlantic routes for a 22 per cent advance over January 1964.

Title Firm Opens Branch In Mill Valley

Marin County Abstract and Title Co. has opened a branch office at 20 Sunnyside Street, Mill Valley.

The new office will be managed by Patrick W. Wilson of 181 Irwin Street, San Rafael. Wilson, who has been serving as escrow officer at the San Rafael office, joined the company in 1963. Previously he was with Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. and before that spent several years in banking. He is a graduate of San Rafael High School and attended College of Marin and San Francisco State College.

Wilson will be assisted by Mrs. Jacquelyn B. Menzio of Corte Madera, who has also been at the San Rafael office. Richard M. Dunn of Bolinas, who recently joined the firm, will assist with customer relations.

Marin County Abstract and Title has its man office at Second and A streets, San Rafael. It was established in 1880 and is affiliated with Western Title Insurance Co., headquartered in San Francisco. A Novato branch office is known as North Marin Title Co.

Eratosthenes of Syena (276-196 B.C.) was aware of the existence of the lakes at the source of the Nile River, but central Africa remained a mysterious country until the 19th Century A.D.

Market Closes Higher During Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today in active trading.

Eastern Airlines, which sank a point at the start in reaction to an airliner crash, recovered and showed a net gain exceeding 2 points late in the day.

Fractional losses were taken by Chrysler and Ford.

Zenith and Eastman Kodak were up about 1 each.

The market was irregularly higher from the start and widened its gains.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.8 million shares, down from yesterday's 6.1 million but still a sizable turnover.

Gains were registered on a fairly broad front at the start. A levelling off followed around mid-day, and then a slight upward trend set in again.

Steels were prominent in the advance. So were aerospace issues. Oils, airlines and electronics made contributions to the higher trend. Rails were mixed, tobaccos weak.

A good scattering of stocks showed gains in the one to two point range, with a few doing even better. Rexall Drug was ahead nearly 2½ and Northwest Airlines barely less than 2.

Also in the air carriers' group, National Airlines jumped about 1½.

The menacing developments in Viet Nam, later appearing less ominous, had the effect of fanning interest in aerospace issues, brokers said.

In this category, Boeing, Douglas and United Aircraft were higher but General Dynamics was down fractionally.

Among the steels, Jones & Laughlin was up a point for a time but then eased a bit.

Port Plans Revealed In Oakland

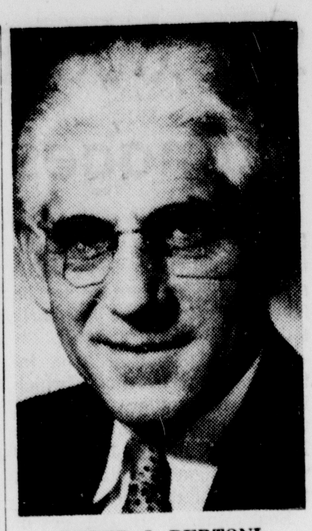

OAKLAND—A $2,240,000 improvement program which will include constructing two gantry cranes, each higher than a 20-story building, is being planned by the Port of Oakland and Sea-Land service to meet the accelerating growth in the intercoastal containership trade.

Sea-Land, the country's largest coastal shipping firm, operates container and trailer ships on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts.

Edward G. Brown, president, Oakland Board of Port Commissioners, said the port plans to finance the $2 million plus improvements through revenue bonds.

Sea-Land has agreed to a 20-year preferential assignment contract with the Oakland port on two berths in the outer harbor terminal area.

The agreement is subject to approval by the Federal Maritime Commission.

Heads Cal-Marin Title

Cal-Marin Elects Bertoni

Peter J. Bertoni has been elected new president of Cal-Marin Title Co. of San Rafael.

Bertoni was selected to succeed Robert S. Findlay Jr. at a special directors meeting. Findlay, who resigned to pursue other business interests, continues as a director and stockholder.

Bertoni will also serve as director, chairman of the board and treasurer. Robert E. Stone has been named vice president, secretary and a director.

Other directors are A. Von Rotz, Arthur Boland, Harold Lang and George C. Goheen Sr. Eugene J. McDonald of San Francisco has resigned as director and attorney.

Bertoni has been vice president and manager of Cal-Marin Title, a locally owned and operated firm, since it opened in April, 1962. He began his title career in 1922 with Marin County Abstract Co., where he remained 22 years. Later he was associated with the real estate firm of Kaenel and Healion for three years. He was 14 years with Marin Title Guaranty Co., where he was a vice president.

A native of San Rafael, Bertoni is past secretary of the Marin County Real Estate Board. He served as president of the Marin Rod and Gun Club in 1945 and again in 1960 and has been a club director for eight years.

He and his wife, Mary, live at 40 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael.

Utah Cage Star Killed In Freak Mishap

LOGAN, Utah (UPI) — Big Wayne Estes, hot-shooting forward at Utah State who developed from a pudgy freshman into a streamlined superstar, was killed last night shortly after playing the best game of his career.

Estes, 22-year-old all-American candidate from Anaconda, Mont., and greatest scorer in Utah State history, was electrocuted in a freak accident near the campus.

Death struck down the talented Aggie performer only a couple of hours after he poured in 48 points in leading his team to a 91-62 win over Denver. The outburst against the visiting Pioneers pushed Estes' career scoring total to 2,001 and helped the Aggies snap a six-game losing streak.

Upon leaving the Aggie fieldhouse the six-foot, six-inch, 225 pound Estes told friends "I felt this was my best game." Fans apparently felt the same way as they gave him a standing ovation as he left the court.

Estes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Estes, had called his mother about an hour after the game to tell her of the outcome and was enroute to a restaurant for a post-game snack when the mishap occurred.

Logan police officer Michael Chadwick said Estes, roommate Delano Lyons, teammate Tim Smith and student John Vasey were leaving the campus when the group saw a car accident at the intersection of College Blvd. and 4th North.

The boys walked toward the wrecked car which skidded into an island and spun into a metal utility pole. The pole, holding a high tension line, had dropped the wire to about six feet off the ground.

Vasey said Estes started to walked from the curb when he bumped the line with his forehead. The classmate said "Wayne's hands started smoking and he fell to the ground." Lyons was knocked across the street by the current but got back up and kicked loose Estes from the wire.

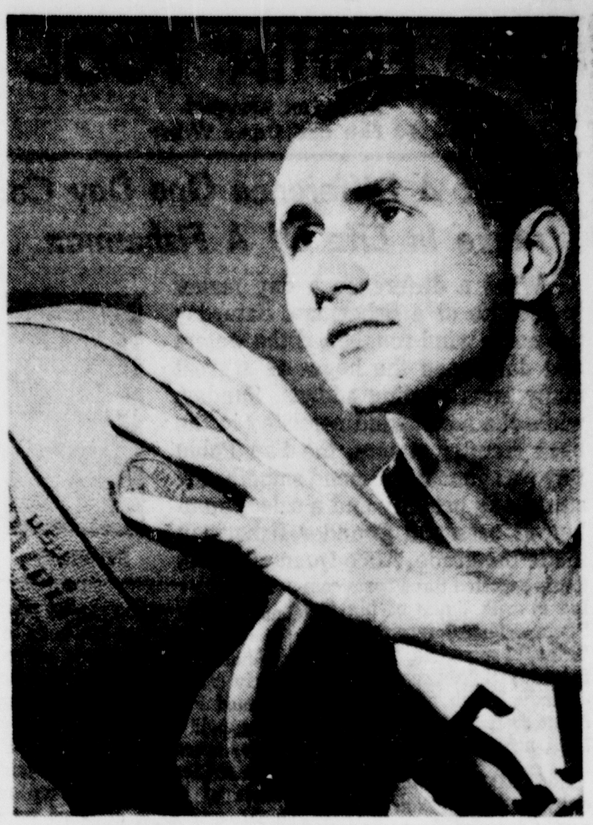

Chadwick gave Estes mouth to mouth resuscitation and a doctor arrived minutes later. The athlete was pronounced dead at the scene.

Three persons involved in the accident were hospitalized. They were David Weeshoff, 20, driver; Kenneth Green and Jess Smith, all students. Green was listed in critical condition.

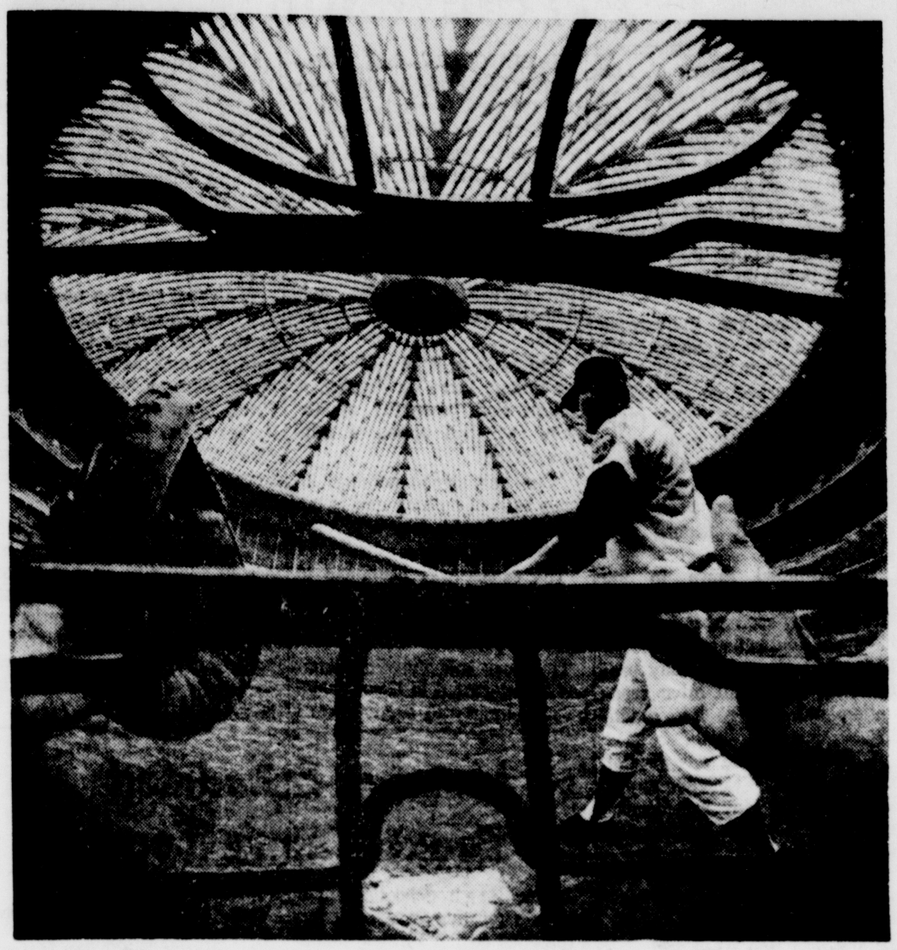

News of Estes' death stunned the school's athletic department. Coach Ladell Anderson, who was like a father to his star player, said "There will never be another Wayne Estes. Basketball was a religion to him. I've never seen anybody who was so dedicated. He worked extremely hard at improving himself."

Athletic director Frank Bu; Williams said "Wayne was the most dedicated boy I ever worked with. He was fantastic

DONS STILL RATED HIGHLY BY FOES

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— The San Francisco Dons lost their national basketball ranking this week, but fellow members of the West Coast Athletic Conference still rate them highly.

"If there is a better team than USF was against us Friday, I don't want to have anything to do with them," Pacific coach Dick Edwards told the Northern California Basketball Writers yesterday.

Edwards' Tigers were tied at the top of the WCAC standings with the Dons before Friday's game, won 104-64 by USF. But a road loss earlier in the week to so-so Tulsa cost the Dons their No. 10 spot in the national ratings.

"USF is certainly the best team we've met this season," threw in St. Mary's coach Mike Cimino, 83-60 loser to USF Saturday. "And we've played a representative schedule, I think."

The writers met this week at the University of California Medical Center as guests of the medical school basketball team composed of former collegiate stars now entered in the local Amateur Athletic Union league.

This made the choice of 6-foot-9 Stanford center Ray Kosanke as player of the week almost obvious.

"This is the first year Ray hasn't lost part of the season with illness or injury," said Stanford assistant coach Bill Turner. "He's had knee operations and a collapsed lung, but so far he's made every practice this season—a new personal record."

Kosanke looked hearty the past weekend in the Indian victories over Oregon and Oregon State. Besides sweeping backboards both nights, he put in 14 of 19 field goal attempts.

California lost to the same two teams Stanford defeated.

Wilt Vs. Warriors Tonight

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain faces his old mates in San Jose tonight and he may have some trouble recognizing the crew.

Just a month ago, the 7-foot 1-inch star was traded by the San Francisco Warriors to the Philadelphia 76ers for Connie Dierking, Paul Neumann and the rights to Lee Shaffer.

Tonight marks the first journey of the 76ers to the Bay Area since the big trade of Jan. 13. Yet since that time, the Warriors have traded away Wayne Hightower, released Barry Kramer and signed Cotton Nash and John Rudometkin.

"We are in the middle of rebuilding from the ground up," says Coach Alex Hannum and the Warriors proved they won't tarry when Kramer was released on waivers yesterday and former Southern California star Rudometkin signed.

Both the newcomers will be in uniform for the series against Philadelphia—tonight at the San Jose Civic Auditorium and Thursday night in Oakland.

The Warriors feared they might be without the services of Nate Thurmond, the man who succeeded Chamberlain at center. He suffered back injuries Sunday at St. Louis, and his participation remains something of a question mark.

An examination showed a painful muscle strain but X rays were negative. Thurmond said he believes he can play and the Warriors hope so. If he can't, Dierking will be facing Chamberlain.

Hannum hopes Rudometkin's shooting can help the cellar dwelling Warriors in the waning weeks of the campaign. The newcomer played with the New York Knickerbockers for two seasons before being released after one game this campaign.

Kramer, the Warriors' No 1 draft choice, played in 33 games and averaged only 3.1 points per game. An All America two years a go, Kramer was hampered by an ankle injury in his last collegiate season for New York University.

Jim Davenport Expects To Give Pagan Battle For Shortstop Job

HANLEY

Jim Davenport doesn't like the idea of being relegated to an infield utility role but he is not about to issue any "trade me or play me" ultimatum to the Giants.

"I wouldn't do anything like that but I would like to play every day," said Davenport, third base Golden Glove of the Giants for six years until Jim Ray Hart arrived on the scene with a potent rookie bat.

DAVENPORT WAS shunted to second base and then to the bench when Hal Lanier was called up in mid-season last year from Tacoma. The way Lanier played second left no doubt in Davenport's mind that he had lost that job, too.

Meanwhile, Jose Pagan was having nothing but problems at short. So Davenport plugged the gap while Pagan tried to rid himself of a bad "walking" habit—taking three off-balance steps just as the pitcher was about to deliver the ball.

"I know I'm not going to move the rookies off third and second," said Davenport, "but maybe I can put up a battle for the shortstop job this spring. That's what I intend to do."

JIM AND AN advance contingent of 10 Giants will report to Herman Franks at Buckhorn next week. Buckhorn is a hot bath establishment in the Arizona desert. Such places usually are patronized by elderly customers with excess weight.

"I guess my invitation to Buckhorn is a sign I'm getting older," said Davenport, now 31. "But I don't feel any older and I'm still 175 pounds as I have been these past years. Nevertheless, an invitation from the manager shouldn't be ignored. So I'll be at Buckhorn although I have no idea what Herman has in mind."

Davenport's all-around ability at third, second and short makes him the most valuable utility hand in either major league. A lot of clubs would like to have him as a day-to-day player at one spot or another.

DURING THE weekend in Santa Rosa at the Sports Celebrity get-together for the March of Dimes, Bill Rigney spotted Davenport coming through the hotel lobby.

"Here comes a fellow I'd just love to have on my team," said the manager of the Angels. "He never failed me once when I managed the Giants. If everyone played the game the way he does, managers would need only rocking chairs."

Abe Isn't Sad About Trade

ST. LOUIS (AP) — John David Crow, who has charged for a lot of yardage on the football field, figures a step backward occasionally will give a runner enough room to move two steps forward.

He feels the same way about being traded to San Francisco.

Moving from the contending St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League to the last-place 49ers normally is no gain, but Crow feels like he's just scored a touchdown.

The Cardinals traded him yesterday to the 49ers in return for defensive cornerback and kickoff return specialist Abe Woodson.

I am not sad about the trade, Woodson said in San Francisco. I'm glad to go with a contending club.

JOHN DAVID CROW
A new 49er

Woodson said he was joining the Cardinals with a positive attitude.

I expected to be traded, the 49er cornerbacker said.

He said he had no difficulties with 49er Coach Jack Christiansen, but that his performance had slacked off in two or three games.

It was a pretty good deal for both clubs, Woodson added.

The 49ers got a guy who can boost their running attack.

"It's what I had been hoping for," said the injury-plagued Crow, who had threatened to quit football if he was not traded. He felt he did not play enough last season.

"I certainly appreciate what the Cardinals have done for me. Now I hope to give Frisco a lift for a couple of years."

The change probably means more time on the field for Crow, who still managed to lead the Cardinals in rushing last season with 554 yards, although he averaged on 3.4 yards per carry.

ABE WOODSON
To be missed

For Woodson, it may mean less time on the field. An All-Pro five consecutive years, injuries sidelined him several games last season.

The Cardinals have been looking for more depth in their defensive backfield, but Woodson "will have to battle for a position," Cardinals' defensive coach Chuck Durlis said. Although a cornerback, he can play anywhere in our defensive backfield," Drulis said.

Crow also has had some brilliant years evading tacklers. He gained 1,071 yards in 1960 and his 3,487 yards rushing in his career is second only to Charley Trippi's Cardinal record of 3,511.

A CURVE STILL CURVES

Houston Stadium Tested

HOUSTON (AP) — The curve curves, the knuckler dances and the ball carries off the bat just as normally as it would outdoors.

That was the verdict of the baseball players who held a practice session in Houston's new $31.6 million multi-purpose Harris County Domed Stadium yesterday.

It was the historic first test of most of the mechanics of baseball on a regulation field indoors.

It was warm, cloudy, misty and damp outdoors. Even so the ball was visible under the dome and the daylight seemed slightly better, if anything, than it was outside.

Then the lights went up, and the arena bloomed in all of its color and brightness and size.

Even Houston Astro General Manager Paul Richards was somewhat amazed.

"Baseball will be exhibited better in this stadium than it ever has been," Richards said.

"The players are going to be able to do a better job and the fans will see it better. With the elements ruled out, the game will be played as it was intended to be played, under perfect conditions.

"I don't feel the outfielders will have any serious problems after a thorough test and a chance to become familiar with the park. In the dull light this afternoon, it appeared that the outfielders will have to follow the ball closely."

"We know," Richards continued, "that the curve ball will break, the knucker will dance and that the field is perfect.' '

"Playing in this stadium will be just like playing in any other park on a calm clear day," said outfielder Al Spangler.

From the hitter's standpoint, Bob Aspromonte of the Astros testified:

"No big difference from outdoors, no problems. You're going to have to hit the ball to get it out of there. The ball isn't going to jump, and it isn't going to be dead."

Said Astro Manager Luman Harris: "It won't be different from playing outdoors."

"The only difference is that there won't be any wind," said pitcher Don Nottebart.

Rusty Staub became the first player to hit home runs in the park with its 340-foot foul lines and a 406-foot depth to center field.

But none of the batters came close to hitting the permanent dome that towers 207 feet, 10 inches above second base—a ceiling tall enough to shield an 18-story building.

Little League Signup Slated

Signups for the 1965 San Anselmo Little League season will be held Saturday, from 10 a.m. to noon, at Memorial Park, President Bob Alvarado of the Boys Baseball Assn. of San Anselmo announced today.

Boys at least 10 but not yet 16 as of July 31, 1965, are eligible. A birth or baptismal certificate must be presented to establish age for all 10-year-olds, and any older boys who did not play in a San Anselmo league last year. The Recreation Department's Midget League is not part of the Little League.

New officers for the BBASA, in addition to Alvarado, were elected at the annual meeting last week. They are Cook Segale, president-elect; Harry Press, secretary; Walt Anderson, players' agent; Alex Rzepiela, umpire in chief; Paul Grandjean, vice president.

Maris Gets Back His $10,000 Salary Cut

NEW YORK (AP) — With Roger Maris in the fold at $72,000 and Mickey Mantle ready to be roped for $107,000, the New York Yankees are lining up for an all-out attendance war with the rival New York Mets.

"I think our attendance will be better than it was last year," said General Manager Ralph Houk at a news conference called to announce the signing of Maris.

The Yanks drew 1,305,638 in 1964 while winning the pennant. The Mets packed in 1,732,597 at Shea Stadium in finishing last.

"Our signings have been coming along real good," said Houk, "the best ever. I think we have the highest payroll of any club. The Yankees always have been known to be generous.

"We look for an attendance increase. Sales are ahead of last year. Interest is real good. I look for more clubs to become involved in the pennant race. Cleveland helped themselves with trades and so did Chicago. Baltimore has just come into its own. Minnesota has to be a better club than it was last season. Give them one relief pitcher and they could be rough."

Houk met the press yesterday to discuss Maris' contract. He said he had returned Roger's salary to the 1962-63 level, restoring a reported $10,000 out of last year.

"I think he made tremendous strides last year," said Houk of the home run star who has had his troubles getting along with some members of the press.

"Yes, this has been a difficult winter," said Houk. "Every affair I attend I get the same questions about the Johnny Keane-Yogi Berra shift and about Mel Allen.

"I do not think the Berra matter will be an attendance factor to us. We got no mail to speak of any more on it. I don't think it will be any more of a burden on Johnny than it was on me when I followed Casey Stengel. It didn't bother me any."

Maris said in a telephone interview from his home in Independence, Mo., that he was satisfied with his pay.

Asked about his preference for an outfield post, he said, "center is all right. Right field might be a bit easier. With a little work I think I can do an adequate job in center."

Roger finished the 1964 season in center with Mantle moving to right to reduce the strain on his legs.

Maris said he had not been upset by the latest trade rumor stories because they had not appeared in his area, but he brushed them off as "one of those things that happens every winter."

Nine J.C. Gridders For Cal

Four of them are returning to the university after mending some academic fences at junior colleges.

The most welcome returnee was Lloyd Reist, a halfback from Sacramento who was the Cal freshman rushing leader in 1963 before leaving for Oakland City College.

Ron Minamide, a back who played briefly for the 1963 varsity, letterman tackle Tom Brown, and back Jack Selman were the other three who know their way around the Berkeley campus.

The five newcomers are quarterback Dan Berry, San Diego City College; linebacker Lyle Setencich and guard Bud Heavner, both from College of the Sequoias; fullback Frank Lynch of Foothill College and fullback Jeff Thayer of Orange Coast College.

Little League Elects Tonight

Election of 1965 officers of the Marinwood-Lucas Valley Little League will be held tonight at the Marinwood Community Center starting at 7:30.

All parents of boys 8 through 12 who are interested in Little League are invited to attend. The election will follow a discussion of rules and eligibility requirements, according to outgoing president Mike Cassidy.

Top-Ranked Michigan Cagers Whip Iowans

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Michigan, the nation's No. 1 college basketball team, has deflated upstart Iowa while fifth-ranked Davidson has shattered West Virginia's streak-stopping stunt.

Michigan, 14-2, whipped Iowa 81-66 last night only hours after the Wolverines again had been voted the top team in the country in the Associated Press poll. Davidson, 19-1, crushed West Virginia 103-80 for its 18th consecutive victory, longest streak in the nation.

Three other members of the Top Ten — Seventh-ranked Vanderbilt, eight-ranked Indiana and Illinois, No. 10 — won, but Wichita, No. 9, was upset by Duquesne 75-72.

Michigan extended its Big Ten record to 6-0 by stopping Iowa, a stubborn team that went into the crucial contest already having achieved three major conquests.

The Hawkeyes knocked off Minnesota 76-74, Indiana 74-68 and UCLA 87-82, each team having only one other defeat at the time. All three also were ranked in the Top Ten with UCLA falling from the No. 1 spot because of the loss 10 days ago.

But Michigan made sure it would not be the next victim by scoring 19 straight points midway through the first half and keeping the Hawkeyes scoreless for eight minutes 14 seconds. That combination erased an early Iowa lead.

Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin, the Wolverines' dreaded duo, tallied 19 points each. Gerry Jones, a high school teammate of Russell, led Iowa with 26 points, 17 in the second half.

Davidson went into its game with the Mountaineers well aware of the outcome of the teams' second meeting last season. West Virginia won that one 75-73, ending the Wildcats' unbeaten string at 15 games.

But Davidson's sizzling shooting, sparked by Fred Hetzel, completely overwhelmed the Southern Conference foe. The Wiltcats connected on 53.9 per cent of their shots from the field with Hetzel pouring in 34.

Wichita dropped its fourth game in 18 starts after leading by 10 points with 13:15 to play. But Duquesne, which held a 36-34 halftime advantage, charged back and went ahead to stay 69-68 on Frank Miniotas' lay up with 2:18 left.

Vanderbilt won its eighth straight Southeastern Conference contest, 96-85 over Louisiana State while Indiana toppled Michigan State 112-94 and Illinois swept by Ohio State 86-71..

Top ten teams not scheduled yesterday were UCLA, No. 2; St. Joseph's, No. 3; Providence, No. 4, and Duke, No. 6.

Those four plus Michigan and Davidson retained their rankings from last week. Vanderbilt advanced two notches, Indiana and Wichita each slipped one and Illinois replaced San Francisco.

STEVENS

What a difference a day makes in the life of a fisherman. Saturday the north wind roughened the waters and dampened the hopes of a great many local angling addicts. Sunday, while the north wind persisted in the back country waters, the San Pablo Bay was almost mill-pond smooth, the sun shone brightly and a select number of bass and flounder fishermen made the grade. Alice Quan of China Camp reported three boats coming in with limits of big fish. "Before 10:30," reported Alice. "Fine," I remarked, "how about Saturday?" "Not so good, Ralph—windy, rough and cold; but about 30 fish came in—all nice bass, none under 10 pounds!"

I ASKED ALICE if any flounders were taken. "You bet!" she said. "Some of the boats fished only for flounders. Got lots of them. Nice fat fellows!"

I asked her where most of the fishing was done. "At the edge of the shell banks, and mostly on sardine bait. I keep telling my customers that the bigger fish have been taken on bullheads, but they won't listen. One young fellow scoffed at the suggestion, said he preferred sardines. He was high rod with a 14-pounder, caught on sardine."

Richard Hardin Jr. caught a 26-pound striper in lower San Pablo Bay, near McNear's, Sunday. He was using bullhead bait.

Oddly, the boats out of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia didn't fare so well. Joe Nerviani told me only one boat made the grade. "Eddie Hamel, of Petaluma, with two friends came with two limits of bass taken in about 16 feet of water. Saturday's total catch was seven stripers and around 100 flounders.

SO IT WOULD seem that geography must be taken into consideration. Two reports from Lee's Bait and Tackle gave the locale fished as Off China Camp. Hal Boenner mentioned that the boat Trade Winds, took some nice fish from 8 to 20 pounds Saturday. The action was at the edge of the shell banks off China Camp. Old timer, "Pop" Johnson, got on the phone and told me that the action slowed down in that area, and his boat, as well as the Trade Winds, moved fairly close to Buoy 5. Pop accounted for two 10-pound bass, using bullhead bait.

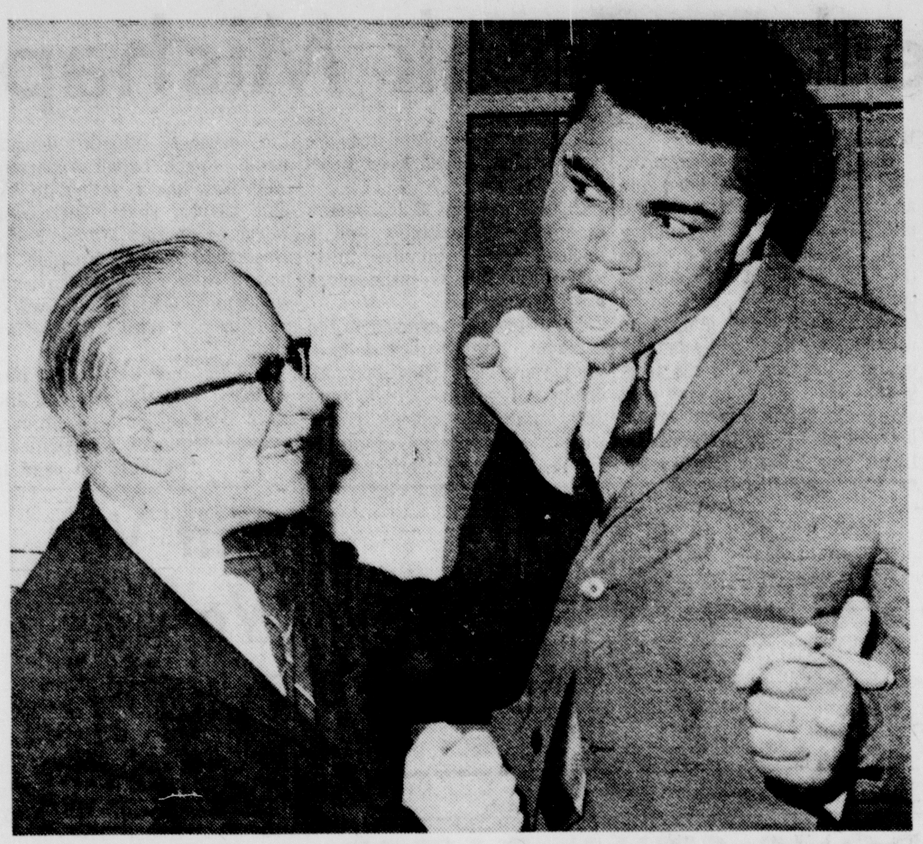

The word from Don's Bait Shop at Clearlake was only fair. "Lots of mud cats, taken at night, and some crappies were landed, but black bass fishing was very slow."

A READER just called to ask about chances of getting some rockfish and ling cods out at the Farallones. Sorry, but wind has roughened the water to a degree that the Privateer which made such a good score last week started out, but one glance at the Pacific beyond the G.G. Bridge, caused it to return to port.

Jim Purcell of the Castro Valley shop reported Melvin Rodriques as taking an 8½ pound striper in Frank's Tract, but he and his bass were the exceptions. J. Davis boated an 18-pound striper in the vicinity of Buoy 8. Larry Henderson returned from the Gualala with a 9½ pound steelhead, and reported the thundering horde of hopefuls lined the banks of every hole, but very few fish came in.

IN THE BACK country Mrs. Louie Patrick lamented the north wind upset of fishing. "Only two boats out on Saturday, Ralph," she said. Then added: "You know that when a north wind takes over, all fishing slows down. Some catfish were landed and that is all."

Some fair-to-middling perch and flounder catches in the Alameda Estuary, but nothing to boast about, according to the Gagnon brothers at the Fruitvale Bait and Tackle.

on the court and a winner all the way."

Estes, because of his 250 pounds, wasn't considered much of a college prospect but Andersen felt different and persuaded him to enroll at Utah State.

The senior physical education major was the No. 2 scorer in the nation this season with an average of 33.7 points. Earlier this season he surpassed Cornell Green's mark of 1,890 points during a three-year career and every point since that time padded Estes' record.

His single game high this season was 52 points in a losing cause abainst Boston College in the Rainbow Classic in Hawaii. His lowest output this season was 19 points in a loss to San Francisco.

Estes' excellent marksmanship wasn't an accident. He practiced every day last summer and worked on perfecting his shooting during every regular practice this season.

He made several all-America teams last year as a junior and was considered a cinch to gain post-season honors this year.

He trimmed down to 225 pounds this season and the streamlining seemed to improve his speed and rebounding skills. Estes had planned to play professional basketball after graduation and then go into coaching.

While his scoring was greater in the Boston College game, his all-around play was considered superior in last night's win over Denver.

Swim Star Denies Television Career

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—Almost as quickly as she swims the 100-yard freestyle, 18-year-old Donna de Varona denied a newspaper report that she plans to give up the sport for a $100,000 a year career in television and advertising.

"I can't understand how rumors like this get started," said the attractive Olympic gold medalist from her Santa Clara home.

"No truth in it at all," added her father, Dave de Varona, in commenting yesterday on the story that had appeared minutes earlier.

The report was contained in a copyrighted story by sports writer Spence Conley in the Oakland Tribune.

The story said that "the companies interested in Donna have been dealing with a go-between in New York," and went on to state that "offers have not been made, but an interest has been expressed, a source disclosed.

"The jobs which await the dazzling champion include commentating on national swimming meets for television, endorsement of products and sales representation."

The story went on to say that Miss de Varona plans to swim in the Yale Water Carnival on Saturday and then later in Germany with a special United States team coached by George Haines of her Santa Clara Swim Club. This would be her last amateur competition, the account said.

De Varona said that although his daughter had had several offers to capitalize on her swimming fame, she planned to attend college with no intention of entering television and advertising now. De Varona said, however, that she is interested in these fields.

Hockey Boys Win Twice, Lose Once

Raydine ice hockey teams from San Anselmo won two and lost one over the past weekend.

The Raydine Ice Hawks, boys 5 through 9, beat Walnut Creek 4-3 Saturday in San Anselmo. David Bonbright and Donald Rowe each scored a pair of goals for Raydine's.

Then on Sunday, the Hawks downed the San Francisco Ice Hockey Club 5-2. Bonbright tallied three goals, and Eric Gabrielson and John O'Neil each blinked the red light once for the winners.

The Raydine Huskies, boys 10 through 12, lost to the San Franciscans Sunday, 7-4. Dan DeBicq scored a three-goal hat trick for Raydine's and Bill Hendrickson added another goal in the losing cause.

Cassius Clay Ready To Resume Training

BOSTON (AP) — Will Cassius make hay with Sonny in May?

Or will Clay as soon meet Liston in June?

That's the extent of the rhyme.

There was none but a perfunctory reason for a news conference yesterday announcing the medical go-ahead for the heavyweight champion to resume training for his delayed title defense.

The scheduled Nov. 16, 1964, fight, postponed when Clay underwent emergency Friday-the-13th surgery for a hernia, likely will be at Boston Garden on a Monday night between May 10 and June 7.

Anyone who saw Cassius hurdling over the top rope at Madison Square Garden a week ago to congratulate Floyd Patterson on his victory over George Chuvalo knew then The Mouth's lower abdomen was A-OK.

While the Intercontinental Promotions, Inc., folks turned various shades of fright, Cassius also punched the heavy and light bags bare-handed.

"For a man who never gets knocked down, Liston sure gets picked up a lot, doesn't he?"

Dr. William McDermott, the surgeon in charge of Clay's case, termed the champ's condition "excellent" and said "at this point he may resume all activities including heavy exercise and strenuous training."

Harold Conrad of Intercontinental said the target date for the fight is May 10. Clay wondered if it might not take as many as four months to get ready, recalling he has promised a special exhibition for a Negro businessmen's cause in Chicago Feb. 27.

Manager Angelo Dundee said it was impossible to tell how long it will take Clay to get ready.

The conclsuion was the fight would be held in from three to four months from now, and for the availability of the maximum number of buildings for closed circuit TV, Monday almost certainly will be the night.

Five Rookie Pitchers Ink Giant Pacts

Five rookie pitchers have signed their 1965 contracts with the San Francisco Giants who have now inked 31 of the 44 players on their 1965 roster.

Tom Jones, Dick Sparks, Bill Wade, Tom Stewart and Quinton Willingham were the signees announced today. All played in the minors in 1964.

Jones, of Phoenix, Ariz., was 6-1 with Twin Falls; Sparks of Bloomington, Ind., was 5-12 at Decatur; Wade of Oran, Mo., 4-17 at Springfield; Stewart of Sayre, Okla., was 5-4 at Waterloo and Willingham of Eglin AFB, Fla., was 7-9 at Fresno.

Bunker To Get Award Sunday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Wally Bunker, chosen by the San Francisco chapter of the Baseball Writers of America as the outstanding California player of 1964, gets his award Sunday from American League President Joe Cronin.

The 19-year-old Bunker won 19 games for Baltimore last year in his rookie season. He lives in nearby San Bruno.

Cronin, a native San Franciscan, belongs to the baseball Hall of Fame. The award presented at the writers' annual banquet is named after him.

GIANT SCOUT SEES END TO BASEBALL'S BONUS SPLURGE

By SCOTT BAILLIE

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI — Eddie Montague, who signed Willie Mays for the Giants after showing up to watch the better known Alonzo Perry, thinks that baseball's free agent draft will bring scouting back in focus.

"A shoe clerk could have been a super scout in recent years if he had money to outbid everybody else," Montague said today of the large bonuses which have been handed out. "But now the scout who has experience and judgment will come back into his own. We have to be awfully sure that the youngsters that we go after are top material."

The game's revolutionary draft, modelled after pro football's, will be inaugurated this June in a move to stop the bonus splurge. Each major league club will select one player apiece in reverse order of last season's final winning percentages. Thus the New York Mets will get the first choice followed by the Kansas City Athletics and so on up the ladder.

"We not only must be absolutely sure of every kid we consider but have a long list," Montague said. "This means a lot more coverage in each area will be needed. And we should have more minor leagues where the boys can be properly developed."

Mays cost the Giants $14,000 in 1950. Ten thousand of it went to secure his release from the Birmingham Black Barons although Willie had signed an affidavit that he was not that club's property. Mays collected another $4,000 for a bonus.

Then, as the price war broke out, the Giants paid pitcher Ron Herbel $65,000 for his signature in 1958 and invested approximately $130,000 in 1962 for Bob Garibaldi, another hurler whose arm troubles have kept him in the question-mark class.

Montague never heard of Mays before going out to the Barons' park to see if Alonzo Perry might help the Giants' Sioux City farm club.

"Then I saw Willie sting the ball and making those terrific throws," Montague recalled. "I clocked him running to first base in 3.5 seconds."

Montague next "scouted" Ray Blades to see if the Brooklyn Dodgers coach planned to approach Mays.

"He didn't," Montague said. "And I slept pretty well that night."

Mays went on to become a $105,000 per year man and Perry a good triple A player.

The signing of Herbel eight years later was a little different. Montague virtually had him wrapped up for a $10,000 bonus. But then Ron's school, Colorado State, replaced Brigham Young in the NCAA tournament after the Mormon institution withdrew because it would not play baseball on Sunday.

"Ron, who was in San Francisco, phoned his mother and they agreed he should pitch in the tournament," Montague said. After that, just about every scout was after him."

This forced the bonus offer up to $65,000 and Herbel signed although the Los Angeles Dodgers offered him about $4,000 more.

GOLDEN GLOVES TONIGHT

Marin Airman Eyes Bigger Game In Amateur Fighting

The entry books for the 1965 edition of the Golden Gloves were closed over the weekend with 127 young fighters from every Bay Area county finally counted. Opening for the big show is set for 8 o'clock tonight at Kezar Pavilion, San Francisco.

According to AAU official and tournament director Al Sandell, the entry list looks to be the finest filed for Gloves action in more than a decade.

A third defending champion was added to the roster late last week when Sgt. Bill Ross of Hamilton Air Force Base informed the AAU office that Martin Berzewski, 156-pound king, would see action this year in the 165 pound class.

Berzewski joins three time Golden Gloves titleholder Bobby Clifford of Hayward, and Benny Gerolaga of Stockton, as return champions in the slugfest.

The surprise division in the show this year has been the heavyweight class. The big amateurs were sparse in past seasons. This year 25 prime big men have made application for the three week show.

How good are these amateur fighters? In the past two years 12 senior finalists from the Golden Gloves have graduated to the pro ranks. Two — Manuel Rameriz and Steve Grant — are already rated top prospects on the Bay Area fistic scene.

Reserved seats for opening night and Friday's semi-final round are $2 and are on sale in San Francisco at Roos Atkins, The National Boxing Club and Free Minetti Sporting Goods Store. Oakland's outlet is The Ringside.

Some 30 bouts are scheduled for tonight with the first bout set for 8 p.m.

San Rafael Recreation Basketball

Blessed Sacrament beat Miller Creek 31-25 Saturday in junior high school action in the San Rafael Recreation Department Youth Basketball League. Dan Mullins scored 13 points for Blessed Sacrament and Bruce Dokken tallied 14 for the losers.

In other junior high division action, Vallecito, led by Jim Purcell with 14 points, downed the Davidson Golds, 46-23, with Jim Schmidt hitting 9 for Davidson. Davidson Blues whipped Santa Venetia, 43-23, with Roger Thomas scoring 18 for Davidson and Joe Bell tallying 8 for S. V. Mill Valley Boys Club won by forfeit over the San Rafael Military Academy and Santa Venetia seventh graders won over Vallecito, also by forfeit.

Scores in the elementary division:

San Pedro Sting Rays 21, San Pedro Bulldogs 6; Glenwood Dons 20, Glenwood Cubs 11; Coleman Gators 30, Sun Valley Celtics 2; Mill Valley Boys Club 14, Laurel Dell Reds 8; Laurel Dell Whites 15, Laurel Dell Blues 6; West End Tigers 15, San Pedro Martians 12; Hartzell 33, Lucas Valley 16; MacPhail Whites 31, Timoteo Hawks 4; Albion Trojans 30, MacPhail Reds 24; Timoteo Blues 23, Albion Stranglers 12; Gallinas Sharks won by forfeit over Gallinas Gales.

PEACH-Y DESSERT

 We have had many, many requests to repeat this recipe!

CHICKEN MAGESTIQUE
(Preheat oven to 450°
2 Jolly fryer chickens, cut up
Lawry's Seasoned Salt
2 packages Lawry's spaghetti sauce mix
1 cup dry bread crumbs
1 tsp. dry basil
½ cup oil
1 cup red wine

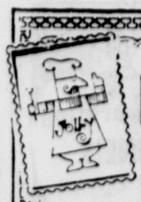

Sprinkle chicken with seasoned salt. Blend spaghetti sauce mix with crumbs and basil; roll chicken in mixture. Spread oil in bottom of large, flat, glass baking dish. Place the chicken in the dish, skin side up, arranging in a single layer. Bake in oven 10 minutes. Now add wine, cover the pan with foil, reduce oven temperature to 350° and bake 45 minutes. Serves 6 generously.

PEACH-Y DESSERT
To make crust: Toast 1 cup quick-cooking rolled oats in a shallow pan, in moderate oven (350°) 5 minutes. Add ½ cup slivered almonds and toast 5 minutes more. Blend in ½ cup brown sugar, ⅓ cup melted butter and mix well. Press on the bottom and side of a 9-inch pie pan, reserving ½ cup of mixture for garnish. Chill shell. Now: Prepare a 3-oz. package orange gelatin with 1 cup hot water, stirring until well blended. Beat in 1 pint vanilla ice cream, add 2 cups well-drained sliced peaches and mix well. Place in chilled shell. Sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture around outer edge of pie. Chill several hours before serving.

'Stars Of Yesteryear' Theme For Outdoor Art Club Jinks

Mill Valley's Outdoor Art Club will be filled with stars of the silent films Thursday when the club stages its annual jinks for members only.

Chairman Mrs. John A. Lennon has urged everyone to dress in accordance with the theme, "Stars of Yesteryear." Prizes will be awarded for best costumes.

The event will start at 12:30 p.m. with a social hour under the direction of Mesdames Richard Rider and Earl Reinke and will be followed by luncheon to be served by Mrs. Fred W. Peters Jr. and her committee.

During a brief business meeting preceding the program, six new members to be welcomed are Mesdames Charles Amy, Bert Balmer, Carl Massey, Agnes Reid, Howard Dawson and Gilbert Donaldson.

The frolic will start with a grand march. Mrs. Earle Marsh is in charge of a sketch to be performed by Mesdames Jack Younger, Walter Long, Edmund J. Mahon, Robert H. Andresen and Samuel Siefert. Mrs. Stewart A. Bostwick will do the makeup and help behind scenes with Mrs. Melie J. Coutlee. Others performing will include Mrs. John M. Nahapiet.

At the door will be Mesdames Roland Kelly and E. H. Laird. Reservations chairmen are Mesdames Thomas B. Lathrop and Charles A. Brown.

Speaker To Tell Of Life In China

Plans have been completed for a silver Valentine tea at the parish hall of Peace Lutheran Church in Mill Valley on Feb. 14 from 3 to 5 p.m.

Sponsored by the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, the tea is a benefit for the Church of the Holy Spirit, a Lutheran mission established in Chinatown, San Francisco, a few months ago.

Mrs. Wilbert Holt will be a guest speaker. Her husband, the Rev. Wilbert Holt, is pastor of the Chinatown mission. Mrs. Holt will tell of some of her experiences while her husband was a missionary in China before the country was taken over by the Communists and they were forced to leave. She will also describe progress being made is the new mission.

Tea chairman Mrs. John Zeides has a special interest in the mission since she is contact chairman for the league.

Receiving guests will be league president Mrs. George Blackmore and Mesdames Harold Johnson and John Zeides. Mrs. H. C. Petros is food chairman, and Mrs. Carl Ebbeson will be in charge of decorating.

DISCUSSING CAMPAIGN PLANS

Even Hunt, the golden retriever of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, right foreground, approves of plans for the annual membership drive of Guide Dogs for the Blind, as he meets Mrs. Joseph C. Hickingbotham Jr., Marin campaign chairman. Among those attending yesterday's meeting for volunteer workers at the Hickingbotham home in San Rafael were, from left, Mrs. Lorraine Dowdy, William Johns, director, Mesdames Rex Minshall, Lawrason Driscoll, David Stevenson and Corky Jones. MR. AND MRS. RONALD A. MARTIN

The Star of the Sea Church in Sausalito was the setting for the wedding Wednesday of Joan E. Sosso of Mill Valley and Ronald A. Martin of Sausalito.

The double ring rites were performed at 12:30 p.m. by the Rev. Henry O'Flynn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sosso of Mill Valley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Martin of Long Island, N. Y.

After the young couple returns from a wedding trip to New York, a reception will be held at the Dock Restaurant in Tiburon on Feb. 20. They will live in Sausalito.

The new Mrs. Martin was graduated from Fresno High School. She attended Fresno State College three years and was graduated from Monterey Peninsula College. She has been employed as a receptionist with television station KPIX in San Fransicso.

Fashions At Friday Show

"Spring Fantasy" is the theme of a children's fashion show which will be given on Friday at 2 p.m. at the Los Ranchitos home of Mrs. Robert W. Burke, 5 Indian Road.

Mrs. John Richard is chairman of the event, which is being presented to benefit the Marin County March of Dimes. Serving on the fashion show committee are Mesdames Walter Becker, Robert Burke, Charles Emery, Walter Erickson, L. J. Agnew, Robert Parrish and John Tognetti.

Tickets are being distributed by some 60 members of the Tri-Valley 4-H Club under the group leadership of Mrs. John Tognetti. The 4-H will also provide entertainment for the event.

MARILYN HRUBY of Terra Linda, daughter of Mrs. John Q. Sparks of Vallejo and Charles Hruby of Terra Linda, will become the bride of Robert Grenier of Terra Linda on Feb. 27. The couple plans to reside in San Rafael following the wedding.

MR. AN D MRS. HAROLD JOHN TANFORAN

Tanforan-Phillips Nuptials Performed At St. Anselm's

St. Anselm's Church in Ross was the setting for the marriage of Marsha Joanne Phillips, of San Rafael and Harold John Tanforan at 1:30 p.m. on Jan. 30.

Marsha wore a traditional full length gown of candlelight satin with Alencon lace trim and chapel train. Her maid of honor was her sister, Susan Lynn Phillips. Sue Anne Stickle was bridesmaid and Victoria Lynn Martineau, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. All were dressed in full length gowns of turquoise satin.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ralph Brisbin of San Rafael and Frank Tanforan of Petaluma. He is also the brother of Mrs. Grover Youngs and Mrs. Daniel Bridgeman.

Harold was graduated from Drake High School and College of Marin. He attends San Francisco State College.

The bride was graduated from San Rafael High School and College of Marin and is presently enrolled at San Francisco State College.

The couple will reside in San Anselmo.

Miss Foster Will Speak At Luncheon

"Christian Women in Today's World" will be the topic of Miss Dorothy Foster at the noon luncheon meeting on Thursday of the United Presbyterian Women of the First Church of San Rafael. Miss Foster is Western area secretary of national missions for UPW.

New officers of the group are Mesdames John Carrothers, president; Sidney Diehl, vice president; Horace Shadle, secretary; Oscar Olsen, treasurer; Thomas Baker, world service; S. D. Archibald and Roland Becsey, fellowship.

Lagunitas P-TA Sponsors Panel Of Noted Writers

"Reading—Pain or Pleasure" will be the topic discussed by well-known writers of children's literature tomorrow in an evening panel-discussion meeting of the Lagunitas Parent-Teacher Assn. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Lagunitas School.

Joining writers Adrien Stoutenberg, who recently won the Lamont poetry prize; Laura Nelson Baker, who has published numerous children and teen-age books, and Gail Tupperman Barclay, children's magazine writer, will be librarians Betty Frank and Eleanor Young, and Beth Raadik, fourth grade teacher at Lagunitas. Donald Stanley, newspaper book editor, will chair the discussion.

Outdoor Sportswatching Is Enjoyed By New President

Mrs. Manuel Bernard of Mill Valley, new president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, includes fishing, hunting and outdoor sportswatching among her other interests.

Gladys and her husband, who is a machinist, are the parents of Roy A. Bernard, who is past president of the Volunteer Firemen of Mill Valley, and Mrs. Arleen A. Boyd, formerly Denise Lynn Bernard.

MRS. MANUEL BERNARD

In the four years she has been a member of the auxiliary, Mrs. Bernard has held the offices of director and vice president. She is also a charter member and past president of the Mill Valley Volunteer Firemen's Assn. Inc. and was the first president of the Marin County Dental Assistants. She has lived in Marin County for 34 years.

Mrs. Bernard is also enthusiastic about flower arranging and traveling through the United States.

Auxiliary projects include a rummage sale to benefit conservation programs and forestry scholarships.

Other new officers are Mesdames Joseph A. Bianchini, vice president; John Marzetta, secretary; Ella Mae Santos, treasurer; and Miss Virginia Sapp, sergeant-at-arms.

Hamilton NCO Wives Set To Sponsor USO Luncheon

The United Service Organization Wives' Club meeting will be sponsored by the Hamilton Air Force Base non-commissioned Officers' Wives Club at noon Feb. 16 at Hamilton.

NCO wives from other bases in Northern California including Travis, Beale, Mather, McClellan Air Force and Mare Island Naval Base and Letterman's will attend the meeting.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m., according to reservations chairmen, Mrs. Samuel Williams and Mrs. James Wallace. Mrs. Jim Byers is general chairman for the luncheon.

Installation of officers of the USO Club will be held.

Two Are Among Top Winners

SANDRA NORUSH

LAURIE MARINCIK

Laurie Marincik, San Rafael High School's "Homemaker of Tomorrow" Betty Crocker winner, has been notified she is among the ten top winners out of 480 high school finalists in California.

Laurie wrote that she felt the San Rafael High School's school government was the most outstanding of all those she has encountered.

She was questioned "What do you feel is the biggest problem in family relationship?" Laurie answered that she felt "parents must be able to get along with each other and show as much love for their children as possible.

Tamalpais High School's finalist for the Betty Crocker "Homemaker of Tomorrow" award is senior Sandra Norush, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vitautas B. Norush of Mill Valley.

Sandra has received a pin signifying that she is Tam's winner.

Further word of the girls' progress toward the $5,000 scholarship should be received in about two weeks.

Marin Women

Beta Member Given Honor

Mrs. Norwood Arnold of Xi Kappa Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority in Novato received the Order of the Rose, an honor bestowed on members of Beta Sigma Phi who have served for 15 years, in ceremonies Sunday at the Bold Knight in Sunnyvale.

Mrs. Arnold joined the Delta chapter of the sorority in 1946 in Seattle, Wash. The highlight of her many service projects was the presentation of a carnival for the Washington Spastic Children's Society in Seattle.

For the past two years, Mrs. Arnold has won second prize for the sorority scrapbook and is presently advisor to the Upsilon Gamma chapter in Novato.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Sometimes babies have streaks of sleeplessness . . . seem almost to fight the sandman. If your baby goes on a night-owl spree occasionally, you can help nudge him toward the land of nod like so:

- Try to keep his waking hours reasonably active and interesting.
- Daily "constitutionals" in the bright air encourage drowsiness.
- No "roughhousing" or exciting play just before bedtime. Stimulation may prolong wakefulness.

Dan Gerber on research. "Here at Gerber, research projects are conducted on a year-round basis. Agriculture, processing methods, nutrition and new product development . . . all get their full share of regular research attention. Every time superior produce is developed, the improved varieties go to your baby. As new processing methods are perfected, they are adopted. New products come to your baby only after they are nursery-tested for flavor appeal and laboratory-tested for nutritive values. Yes, when you buy Gerber, you're sure of your money's worth in nourishment."

Sweet music for little ears. Why not attach a string of Gerber Swiss Bells to baby's carriage? The merry, light 'n' airy music will enchant him when he's awake, won't disturb him when he's asleep. Also fine for attaching to playpen.

Success stories. Mealtimes are usually "looking-forward-to" times when you serve Gerber Strained Foods. Wonderful variety . . . over 50 tempters. Flavor supreme, be it a fruit, vegetable, meat, dinner or dessert. Textures? Super-smooth and palate-pleasing. And each and every one is "custom-cooked" according to its individual requirements to bring out the best in each particular product. When served in wide variety, they provide your baby with well-rounded nourishment. Has baby tried the new Vegetables and Ham with Bacon, yet? Downright delicious. Gerber® Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Mich.

Karen Dixon Wed At Presidio

Karen Lee Dixon of San Rafael became the bride of Lt. Richard A. Tann of San Francisco in a recent ceremony performed in the Chapel of Our Lady at the Presidio.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Dixon of San Rafael.

Lt. Ralph Cantafio of Sausalito acted as best man and ushering were Lts. David Williams and John Scherer of the Presidio.

The bride was graduated from Northside High School in Atlanta, Ga., and attended the University of California.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Tann of Erie, Pa., was graduated from Cathedral Preparatory School and Gannon College in Erie. He is now serving with the U. S. Army at the Presidio. Charles and Gerald Tann and Mary Arnold of Erie are his brothers and sister.

Following a wedding trip to Honolulu, the newlyweds will reside in San Francisco.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Feb. 9, the 40th day of 1965 with 325 to follow.

The moon is at its first quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening star is Jupiter.

The ninth President of the U. S. William Henry Harrison, was born on this day in 1773.

In 1825, the House of Representatives elected John Quincy Adams president.

In 1900, 7,000 workers in Chicago voted to strike for an eight-hour day.

In 1943, Japan evacuated Guadacanal in the Pacific in the face of overwhelming American military superiority.

In 1950, Sen. Joseph McCarthy charged that the State Department was infested with Communists.

A thought for the day—American poet Jaoquin Miller wrote: "That man who lives for self alone lives for the meanest mortal known."

TIME AND TIDE

Students Of Crime Challenged By Hand In This Bridge Game

Students of crime should study today's hand very carefully.

It isn't hard to see who belongs behind bars, but you can't put him there unless you can state just what he should have done to stay out of jail.

Opening lead — ♣ 2

West opened the deuce of clubs, and East took the ace of clubs and returned the nine of diamonds.

ACE WINS

South won with the ace of diamonds and led a trump to the ace and a trump back from dummy.

East stepped up with the king of spades and returned the four of clubs to West's king. Back came a diamond, and East's ruff defeated the contract.

You now have all the clues you need. Decide for yourself before reading on who the criminal was and just where he deserted the paths of virtue.

DEEP-DYED CRIMINAL

South was a villianous criminal, for he should make his contract. He should spot the diamond return as a singleton and should know exactly what East plans to do.

South wins the second trick with the ace of diamonds, cashes the ace and king of hearts, and leads a spade to dummy's ace.

KEY PLAY

Then comes the key play: Declarer must lead the jack of hearts from dummy.

East must cover with the queen of hearts, and South discards his second club. This gives East a heart trick and prevents West from getting a club trick. As a result, West can never gain the lead to give East a diamond ruff.

Answer: Pass.

You need at least 6 points for a response, and in this case you can count only 3 points for your king and perhaps 1 point for the doubleton. It is not enough.

Burglars Invade House, Garage

A total of between $200 and $300 was taken, she said.

Two Marin Men Had Role In Clearing Smog Muddle

The battle against forced installation of anti-smog devices on all used cars since the 1950 models has now reached a milestone.

What started out as a plaintive protest from a few outraged citizens in Marin finally mushroomed into a crescendo in the legislative halls at Sacramento.

The Legislature passed and the Governor signed into law a bill that eliminates penalties for used car owners who do not install crankcase smog devices this year.

The whole controversy over auto smog control is certainly far from over. But the law adopted last week gives harrassed and confused car owners a breather, and the legislators a chance to work out some long range solutions under calmer circumstances.

We pause briefly during this "breather" to give credit to a couple of citizens from Marin who we feel are largely responsible for giving voice to the little car owners' complaints against the crankcase devices and ultimately in bringing modifications in the law.

Almost a year ago, Lester E. Jennings Jr. of Corte Madera and Lars Williamson of Tamalpais Valley, amateur mechanics, learned through experience that crangcase devices for smog control were gumming up the engines. And they said so.

Jennings and Williamson, bucking the laws adopted in 1963 and the California Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board, found the going rough. But they never gave up.

They organized what they called the Citizens for Sensible Smog Suppression and went to bat for the little car owner.

Their argument was simple and to the point: Leave the used cars alone. Additional gadgets like crankcase devices, attached to older cars, only damage the engine and create more expense and inconvenience to car owners.

Control of car smog should start at the car factory, where smog standards should be laid down and manufacturers required to turn out cars meeting those specifications. That message by Jennings and Williamson did get through, at least partially.

Several legislators have picked up the baton and are carrying bills through the Legislature. Some legislation would go so far as to outlaw smog devices on all used cars. Others would require smog devices on all new cars and all used cars at the time of sale.

At any rate, the eventual outcome will not be nearly as all-encompassing as the original law that would have required virtually all cars on California highways to have smog devices attached this year.

We believe that relief legislation now in the works in Sacramento is due in part to the determination and efforts of a couple of citizens from Marin by the name of Jennings and Williamson.

THE LONELINESS OF CHILDREN

Skyscraper apartments are causing some children to be "terribly lonely," according to a survey made by the British National Council of Social Service.

Much of the trouble arises because pre-school children living above the fifth floor are often not allowed outdoors to play. Their busy mothers keep them inside as they are not able to run downstairs quickly enough in case of trouble.

These lonely youngsters are deprived of the company of other children and find it difficult to adjust when they enter school for the first time.

The survey also pointed out: "How happily a person gets along as an adult in his job, in his family and social life, depends a great deal on how he got along with other children when he was young."

Whatever the sacrifice involved, children should be given ample opportunity to develop normal human relations.

By the very nature God has given them, young people need friends. And they should learn how to contribute to the happiness of others.

"Behold, how good it is, and how pleasant, where brethren dwell as one!"

Proposition 14 Over One Hurdle, Faces More In Higher Courts

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — At least one hurdle involving the constitutionality of Proposition 14 is passed without even a tick on top. This is the result of a superior court decision handed down in Sacramento by Judge William M. Gallagher, who declared the controversial issue valid in every way.

PROPOSITION 14, it will be recalled, was the bitterly contested amendment to the State Constitution voted by the people last November by the tremendous majority of 4,515,013 to 2,395,747.

It nullifies certain provisions of the Rumford Housing Act, and fundamentally, as the court says, restores to the private property owner in California the right of free choice in the lease, sales or rental of his property.

However, even in the face of the better-than-2-to-1 vote in favor of the amendment, the die-hards, in the person of Nathaniel Colley, attorney and representative of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, continue attempting to thwart the will of the people through the courts.

While Judge Gallagher's decision does not by any means end the matter, it at least puts the lower court on record as expressing the will of the people as reflected in the tremendous majority vote last November.

IT SHOULD ALSO be remembered that the superior court of a county is the closest court to the people. Judge Gallagher should be commended for his direct manner in handling the case and for an opinion which must be considered when it goes to a higher court, as Colley has said it will.

Unfortunately, the public may not get as thorough an opinion when the case gets to the district court of appeals here. The new judge on this court, former Sen. Ed Regan of Trinity County, could disqualify himself from rendering an opinion. Regan is the senator that pushed the Rumford bill through the State Senate for Gov. Edmund G. Brown in a hectic session.

Now Regan, in danger of losing his Senate seat through reapportionment, has been appointed a high court judge.

Similarly, the case when and if it gets to the State Supreme Court, may not have the benefit of decision by all the judges. New Justice Stanley Mosk, former attorney general of California, was appointed to that post by Brown after he withdrew from a U. S. Senate race. Mosk, as attorney general, was an outspoken opponent of Proposition 14 and may have to disqualify himself from ruling on the measure.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Rancher Receives Praise From Peer

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As sheep raisers in Marin County, we wish to thank Mr. Martinelli for ridding us of an expensive predator. About a week ago we saw an eagle on our ranch kill a lamb. We were unable to shoot it. A day later we saw an eagle eating a lamb on a neighbor's ranch. Due to the report of Mr. Picher, president of the Audubon Society, regarding the scarcity of these predators, we assume it to be the eagle Mr. Martinelli was fortunate enough to shoot.

Why No Cries Of Anguish Now?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The Allen and Scott column in the I-J for Jan. 29, in discussing Soviet arms being used in Viet Nam, says in part, "Ambassador Maxwell Taylor, who estimates the new Russian guns will double U. S. air losses, is seeking permission from the president to bomb these Communist strong points AT WILL rather than wait for permission from Washington for each air strike."

I can still hear the cries of anguish which echoed throughout this land when just four months ago Barry Goldwater suggested the same thing.

Both Eagles, Lambs Have Ties To Public

Editor, Independent-Journal:

When you stop to think about it, we all have a share in our native wild animals. Recently Mr. Martinelli in Pt. Reyes killed eagles he partially owned in favor of lambs he also partially owns.

For again, when you stop to think, when farmers receive federal subsidies from taxpayers' pockets and sheep men have access to low-cost federal grazing land, the general public participates to that extent in the ownership of the farmer's cattle and the sheep man's lambs.

The lines of property rights are not always so sharply drawn as we sometimes think and I for one wish Mr. Martinelli had asked me first when he chose "our" lambs over "our" eagles.

Communists' Speech At School Protested

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Since it has been established that the Communist Party USA advocates the overthrow of the U.S. form of government by any means possible (including illegal means if necessary); and that the Party is on the Attorney General's list of subversive organizations prepared by the House Un-American Activities Committee; and that any and all means will be used to undermine the United States — its Government — and its way of life; now therefore allowing an official spokesman—the Northern California Director of the Communist Party — to speak before high school children—and on property supported by its taxpayers — constitutes complete violation of trust by those responsible. . . .

Now to lend a screen of respectability to this spokesman of the Party, and a platform from which to spread the venomous doctrine is indeed naive and dangerous. A professional Communist spokesman should under no circumstances be allowed to pitch children ages 14 to 17. The "soft" pitch given by the speaker in no way alters the basic platform laid down by the Communist Party. The Party must deceive and dupe where possible and when necessary.

Under the guise of enlightenment, education, or information, educators may be justified in exposing students to philosophies (political or otherwise); however, a discernment must be made between enlightenment and indoctrination—the latter may evade the truth in its entirety if need be. . . .

It is most certain that any persuasive adult can influence school children—information is one thing — influence is another. The question is, do we want our children influenced by a member of the Communist Party? Do we want to lend an aura of dignity and respectability to his comments which can take any form—truth or otherwise (as convenient) — whichever is needed to win an audience? It is disgraceful for the principal of a large high school to sit still and allow this Communist to mercilessly berate and belittle our form of government. His political intelligence should be questioned. He is indeed naive.

If the Trustees of the School District are aware that political indoctrination of school children is taking place and intend to do nothing about it, then the voters will not sit still on this issue. The time has arrived, perhaps, where the taxpayers should reconsider the responsibility of those in office as Trustees.

The men voted into office must remember that they are in a position of trust, and this trust to include the wishes of the parents and taxpaying public who voted them in, since taxpayers can vote them out.

Hit-Run Motorists Branded As Thieves

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This is the first time I have written a letter to you good people. I direct this protest specifically, however, to the considerate person who parked the Plymouth sedan in front of the hardware store in Terra Linda about 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 3.

I had the misfortune to park beside the above-mentioned which was carelessly parked at an angle naturally. Upon returning to my car after making a call, I found the right side of my car raked for over $125 worth of damage.

I have had the car 13 months now and this makes the fourth time in a year that some thief has imposed his incompetence on me while I've been parked and away from the car. I call the person a thief because, in my opinion, it is the same thing as stealing $125 from my insurance company and me and running away.

I just want the driver of the black Plymouth to know that the disillusioned owner of the little white car he or she clobbered will recognize the former car and the white paint its bumper is now trimmed with. I might even get the opportunity to meet the owner personally.

In the meantime, I wish the thief kindest thoughts.

BENNETT CERF

A TOUGH, ill-tempered novice in the prize ring was overmatched with a leader in his division, and was knocked cold in the second round. Regaining consciousness a half-hour later in the dressing room, he found his manager hovering solicitously over him. "You get me a retoin match wid dat bum," he told his manager balefully, "and den you is going to see a REAL massacre. I'll knock your block off!"

CLANCY AND HIS WIFE were equally fond of their mangy, mean-tempered cat. "Pat," demanded Mrs. Clancy as her husband climbed into bed one night, "did you put out the cat?" "That I did," maintained Pat. "I don't believe you," countered Mrs. C. "Right-o," conceded Pat. "If you think I'm a liar, get up and put her out yourself."

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD Luci Baines Johnson catches on quickly. The other day, attending a class at the National Cathedral School, the teacher produced for study a pair of mice in a box. Remarked Miss Johnson sagely, "You should pick them up by the tail—but I'm not going to do it!"

LBJ Turns De Gaulle's Trick Against Him In News Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson has done to French President Charles de Gaulle almost exactly what de Gaulle did to President John F. Kennedy. And now Johnson and de Gaulle look as far apart as Kennedy and the Frenchman did.

JOHNSON SUDDENLY called a news conference within a few minutes after de Gaulle had finished a news conference. If it hadn't been for this, the Frenchman would have had world headlines to himself.

But de Gaulle had to share them because Johnson and his administration repudiated what the French president said a few minutes before.

Until this happened Johnson for months had said nothing to irritate the Frenchman. In turn, de Gaulle had been quiet. But, as Thursday showed, this didn't mean Johnson had hypnotized de Gaulle into being agreeable.

In early 1963 it was known for some time Kennedy would deliver his State of the Union message to Congress on Jan. 14. Under ordinary circumstances this would have given him the world stage for one day. The world was waiting.

De Gaulle jumped into the act. He hadn't had a session with reporters since May, 1962, but he suddenly decided to meet the press not only on Jan. 14 but a few hours before Kennedy could begin to talk.

DE GAULLE undercut what Kennedy was to say later. There wasn't much Kennedy could do about it. His message had already been prepared, mimeographed and distributed.

Kennedy's message spoke glowingly of a Europe moving toward unity. The Frenchman contradicted this idea before Kennedy could mention it. He made a mess of Kennedy foreign policy.

For weeks it was known de Gaulle would meet the press Feb. 4. Johnson hadn't held a preannounced news conference since last July 24. Reporters protested, newspapers criticized him.

AS LATE AS Wednesday, Johnson's press secretary, George Reedy, told impatient reporters that "for the time being" Johnson had no new information they didn't have already.

At 9:56 a.m. Thursday, immediately after de Gaulle's conference, the first bulletin from Paris said he called for a new world monetary system founded on something more than the dollar and pound sterling, a slap at this country and Britain.

At 10:05 a.m. another bulletin: De Gaulle proposed a five-power conference, including Red China, to examine and perhaps revise the United Nations Charter, although Red China isn't even a member.

At 10:25 a.m. a bulletin from Washington: The White House said Johnson would hold a news conference at 11 a.m. If anything was needed to show the Johnson administration's instant disagreement with de Gaulle, it was this:

BEFORE JOHNSON could meet newsmen, American officials were already disagreeing with de Gaulle. At 10:42 a.m. the Associated press reported unnamed officials considered his five-power conference idea impossible.

Then Johnson, at his news conference, challenged de Gaulle's suggestion for revising the U.N. Charter. Still later in the day U. S. Treasury officials said de Gaulle's monetary ideas would be a retreat to 1931 when the world economy collapsed.

Johnson began his news conference with a series of statements on national problems and said he had planned to make them for newsreels and then decided to let reporters ask him questions.

JOHNSON'S BEEN around too long to make what he did to de Gaulle an accident.

Sen. Douglas Flays De Gaulle Gold Raid

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — An immediate and specific recourse is available to put an abrupt halt to Gen. Charles de Gaulle's haughty raiding of this country's steadily diminishing gold reserves—now down to 15.187 billion dollars from around 20 billion dollars five years ago.

THE NEXT TIME the de Gaulle regime demands gold for part of its estimated 1.3 billions in dollar holdings, we could counter with an equally firm notification that the dollars will be applied to the 6.34 billion dollars France still owes in World War I debts.

This huge debt is still "live" on the Treasury's books. It was never canceled; payments were merely suspended.

In 1931, at the height of the desperate European financial crisis, President Herbert Hoover secured congressional approval to suspend payments on Allied war debts—now totaling more than 20 billion dollars in principal and interest.

France is the second largest debtor, owing 3.863 billion dollars in principal and 2.476 billion dollars in interest. Britain tops the list with 9.149 billion dollars.

In view of the de Gaulle regime's persistent raiding of the U. S. gold reserve, Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), twice former chairman of the Joint Economic Committee and a ranking member of the banking and finance committees, deems the time highly appropriate to bluntly raise the issue of resumption of the long-suspended payments of World War I debts.

France's immense dollar holdings are due largely to U. S. spending there for maintaining troops and air units for the defense of France. Last year these military expenditures amounted to some 300 million dollars. Last month de Gaulle used half of those dollars to pull off a 150-million-dollar raid on U. S. gold reserves.

Following France's devastation in World War II, the U. S. poured more than 9.5 billion dollars in economic and other aid into that country—every penny of it in free grants.

DOUGLAS HAS strongly urged both the State Department and Treasury to serve notice on the de Gaulle regime that any more attempts to raid U. S. gold will be instantly countered with demand for payment of the decades-overdue World War I debts.

So far the Johnson administration has greeted this forthright proposal in disapproving silence. That's not deterring Douglas from continuing to advocate it.

Douglas also pointed out that it is being authoritatively hinted in international banking quarters that the de Gaulle regime plans other raids on the U. S. gold — possibly as much as 450 million dollars.

Further, that under de Gaulle, France has obtained far more gold than any other country from the U.S. Its "purchases" have exceeded 450 million dollars annually. In 1964 they totaled 454 million; in 1963, 518 million; and in 1962, 456 million dollars.

Spring Cleaning Should Include Check Of Hazards To Children

THE OTHER DAY, David E. Ziel reported to the Novato police that there was an open well on a vacant lot adjacent to his home at 2144 Center Road, Novato. The police told the owner of the lot to see that the well was covered.

This was an eight-inch cased well about 30 feet deep. Although it was a small well, a small child could have fallen into it.

It probably isn't the only such hazard to children. With the coming of nice weather, youngsters will be playing all over vacant lots and nearby fields. Parents and owners should check their neighborhoods to be sure that other hazards do not exist. Children love to investigate such things as culverts, ditches, wells, refrigerators and even plastic bags. These have all proved fatal in the past.

THIS IS A note to parents and teachers in all of Marin County. If you did not see the television program on Stonehenge last Monday night, you missed one of the best of the year. If you did, you will probably agree that such a film should be reshown at a time when children could see it, and the film should be made available for school and classroom use.

Although it dealt with the very dull subject, an ancient rock monument in England, it was put together with all the skill of a good suspense story. The thrilling climax, proving the theory of a modern scientist that Stonehenge was a huge astronomical observatory, was a good example of how a modern calculating machine can help solve mysteries of the past. It also proved that ancient man had a knowledge of astronomy, geometry and civil engineering surprising to modern man.

Most Marin County residents will never see the original Stonehenge, but many local residents get to our neighboring states on the north. There is a massive replica of part of Stonehenge on the Washington side of the Columbia River at Maryhill, Klickitat County. It was constructed by Sam Hill, the railroad magnate, and the community as a monument to the dead of World War I.

I wonder if they constructed it as accurately regarding the positions of the sun and moon as the ancients did 4,000 years ago in England?

NOVATO MAYOR Robert D. Carrow went to Mississippi to gather voter registration information to be used in challenging the last election to Congress from that state. Whether the volunteer attorneys are successful really does not matter at this time. Sooner or later, they will be successful.

What does matter is that enough legal minds in the nation think that there is an injustice done elsewhere in this country to want to help correct it. Nor were the attorneys the only ones. Carrow's trip was financed in part by donations from 11 Novato businessmen.

What's the old saying that all that is necessary for evil to flourish is for enough righteous men not to do anything about it?

WITH ALL THE WORK of Al Bowman and the Novato Downtown Improvement Assn. trying to make Grant Avenue east of Machin Avenue into an old Western town, there was added a bit of incongruity this week. The Northern California School of Judo has erected an Oriental pagoda over its store front.

Well, after all, the Spanish style of architecture was supplanted by the old Western style of buildings. Novato has both in its old town. Now we have Oriental style. Anyway, weren't the Orientals here at the same time?

Most Pleasant Journey In Life Often Down Old Memory Lane

NEW YORK (AP) — The pleasantest journeys we take in life are those made back through memory.

When we travel by car, train or plane, we are often the unwilling victim of road conditions, weather, or schedules we cannot change. But when our vehicle is memory, there are no traffic jams, we can travel any route we choose, and linger as long as we want at any charming vista we have known before.

YOU'VE PUT quite a few miles and years behind you if you can look back in your mind and remember when—

You could get a good pair of shoes for under $5, and a respectable funeral for $150.

FEW PEOPLE over 40 bothered to have an aching molar treated. They simply told the dentist, "Pull her."

THE AVERAGE plumber or bricklayer earned less than a white collar worker.

Housewives hated to see summer come — because it brought so many flies.

If you had a grandmother, you expected her to be gray-haired — not a beauty shop blonde.

SCHOOLCHILDREN spent more time doing household chores than homework.

There wasn't a grocery store in the country that sold books or aspirin tablets.

FARMERS PRIDED themselves more on their barns than their houses, and got more free seeds than benefit payments from the federal government.

Women claimed that if they ever got the right to vote they'd soon end corruption in public office.

Those were the days. Remember?

Flutist Slated With Symphony Next Sunday

The Symphony Guild of Marin will present the second concert of the Marin Symphony Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Marin Catholic High School.

Featured soloist will be flutist Wendy Eisler.

Under the baton of Sandor Salgo, the orchestra will open the concert with the Mozart Concerto for Flute and Piano in D Major. The seldom-performed Kodaly Symphony will then be heard, and the concert will conclude with the massive Brahms Third Symphony in F.

Weather Holds Up Flood Project

Weather is still holding up completion of the Coyote Creek flood control project in Tamalpais Valley but, with sunshine, work may be completed in one week.

Rock has not been placed on access roads paralleling the channel from the railroad tracks near the bay to a spot near Ross Drive since earth must be 95 per cent compacted, according to army engineers specifications, said Lynn Ourso, Freethy Co. superintendent. Bridges are all complete except for Flamingo Road Bridge where pavement is yet to be placed.

60—Homes For Sale County Wide

home BUYERS in Central Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County by a ratio of more than 3½ to 1
(than from San Francisco)

Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, covering 2 out of 3 homes in the County!!
- The I-J daily circulation is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner Combined!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

home BUYERS in Southern Marin are ALREADY living in Marin County by a ratio of more than 2 to 1

(than from San Francisco)

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families them-selves.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, cover-ing 2 out of every 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Iron Deficiency Anemia Takes Long Time To Treat And Recover From

VAN DELLEN

A 40-year-old woman writes: "I'm always tired, nervous, and short of breath. In addition, my hands and feet tingle and feel numb. Our physician says I am healthy except for a boderline anemia. I feel better when he gives me iron tablets but it doesn't make sense. How can borderline anemia cause all this trouble?"

In the past, most physicians would agree with this woman, provided she had iron deficiency anemia. This is understandable because in other types of anemia, the blood count and hemoglobin (iron content of blood) are very low before symptoms develop.

WHY IS IRON deficiency anemia so different? We now know that the blood count does not tell the whole story. Considerable iron is stored in bone marrow in a form easily converted into hemoglobin in the blood.

Let us assume that this woman loses a certain amount of iron in her menstrual flow. In addition, her diet lacks iron because she prefers salads and dainty sandwiches to meat. In time, the percentage of iron in her system wanes but this deficiency is not detected in the blood until the reserve supply in the bone marrow is depleted. Special studies have shown that when the quantity of iron in these depots is exhausted, the response to iron tablets is excellent. Victims of anemia become peppy and are relieved of headache, dizziness and nervousness.

A DALLAS physician recently calculated that the iron deposits of normal men average 819 mg., whereas those of women are only 254 mg. He conducted tests on several volunteers in which the iron stores were completely depleted and an obvious anemia existed. Iron tablets were given when this stage was reached and the hemoglobin content of the blood returned to normal in a short time.

But the medicine had to be continued for four to six months before iron deposits in the bone marrow returned to normal. These people took 110 mg. of iron per day but only 3 to 6 mg. were absorbed to make up the deficit.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SOLE WART

Mrs. W. writes: What will happen if I disregard treatment of plantar warts?

REPLY

Nothing, if you refer to the usual wart on the sole. The majority are so painful most victims want them treated and the cause corrected. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on plantar wart.

NERVE DEAFNESS

F. S. writes: Can anything be done to retard deafness caused by deterioration of the hearing nerve?

REPLY

Possibly. Vitamin B complex or niacin is worth trying. Meanwhile, consult an ear specialist for a hearing aid or advice on lip reading.

SALT WATER BATHS

M. T. writes: If a person is on a reducing diet, will weight be lost faster if she bathes in epsom salts every night?

REPLY

No, because epsom salts are not absorbed through the skin and the solution is no more efficient than ordinary water.

QUIESCENT POCKETS

G. S. writes: Will observance of a bland diet cause diverticula to go away?

REPLY

They'll stay put — but silently.

NAVEL HERNIA

G. B. writes: Does a navel rupture (about the size of a pea) call for surgical repair?

REPLY

Not as a rule.

OPEN SPINE

H. W. writes: What is spina bifida? My daughter was born with this disease and had a spinal operation right after birth.

REPLY

VITAMIN FOR CIRCULATION

E. B. writes: For what circulatory condition is niacin given?

REPLY

This vitamin dilates small blood vessels and is used occasionally to improve circulation to the ears, brain, fingers, and toes. It is of questionable value along this line.

Water Area Master Plan Due Viewing

General Mgr. William R. Seeger tomorrow will place a 10-year master plan for the Marin Municipal Water District before district directors at a meeting at 1:30 p.m. at the district office in Corte Madera.

Seeger said the plan, a book of text and charts and maps an inch thick, still is not complete, but said it would show the engineers' best guess on needs within the present boundaries during the next decade.

He said he does not believe the present water rates will be adequate to pay for all the needed expansion. However, he will make no recommendation on source of money, but propose alternatives of high water rates or levying a property tax.

Seeger said the plan will not include water needs of the county's west coast or the Marincello area, although both are expected to annex to the district in the next decade.

Any inmprovements to those areas will have to be paid for by residents and property owners concerned, but need not be supported by present residents of the district, Seeger said.

Seeger said the plan will include major water transmission lines, reservoirs and tanks, and expansion of the San Geronimo water treatment plant, but will not include new buildings or yards.

He added he probably would not advise a water district bond issue in the next 10 years.

The water district will probably have to join other districts in a bond proposal for 1975 for the warm springs project, to bring water into Marin from Sonoma County, Seeger predicted.

Homestead Players Schedule Tryouts

Tryouts for the Homestead Players' spring production of Reginald Rose's "Twelve Angry People" will be held at 8 p.m. Friday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Brown's Hall, 390 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

The cast consists of 15 persons. All actors must appear to be over 21, said Players president Betty Shelmerdine, but persons of any age may work on the production staff.

Johnson Asks Funds For Kennedy's Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has asked Congress for $1.77 million to make improvements near the grave of President John F. Kennedy.

The White House said the money would be used for walks, platforms and other facilities designed to accommodate the large number of visitors to the Arlington National Cemetery grave.

Novato Art Classes

The first meeting of art classes for teen-agers and adults will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday at the Novato Community House at Machen and De Long avenues. The classes are sponsored by the North Bay Artists and the Novato parks and recreation department. Mrs. Katherine Johnson will be instructor.

Reed Session

Trustees of Reed Union School District meeting at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School will consider a financial statement for the district, an enrollment report, and endorsement of a child behavior code.

Tiburon Planners Will See Map Of Development Idea

The Tiburon Planning Commission will meet in special study session at 8 p.m. tomorrow to view a map showing present and future development of Red Hill and see a film on urban renewal.

Planning commissioners will meet at Del Mar School to hear Sausalito architect Eugene A. Wedell explain his map of Red Hill which shows present construction and promised future building on the hill which is known for the mud slides at its base.

The hour-long film is entitled "Form, Design and the City" and tells of the use of architecture and other planning means in the Philadelphia urban renewal program.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Midnight's No. 1? It's Johnny Carson

By RICK DUBROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — How goes the late-night television ratings race? Is Johnny Carson still the No. 1 pinup boy of the midnight audience? Can ABC-TV's newcomer, Les Crane, find happiness on a coast-to-coast hookup? And how is Steve Allen's syndicated replacement, Regis Philbin, doing? Today we will try desperately to answer some of these questions.

First things first. Yes, Johnny Carson is still the No. 1 pinup boy of the midnight audience. Every so often, NBC-TV issues a pronouncement to the effect that Carson's "Tonight" show is making more money and is seen on more stations than ever before—which to Carson fans is a rather happy dig at the late-night master he succeeded, Jack Paar. Apparently Carson and Paar are not whole-hearted fans of each other. It is sad.

NBC-TV recently added a sixth night of "Tonight" each week—a Saturday rerun — and the network says this is going great guns too. So you can see Johnny is a hit. The difficult thing about the ratings is that you never know which one to believe, so you can't really tell just how much of a hit. Thus, as I remember it, one set of ratings suggested that Carson was murdering Crane. Yet another set says Crane is giving Carson a tough go. The ratings also vary sharply from market to market. Personally, I won't lose any sleep over it and I hope everyone is a success, and let's not forget Jack Paar.

Crane is apparently changing from a controversial fellow to a more easy-going fellow. But Philbin has had some troubles chiefly because he doesn't have, apparently, a nasty or show-off bone in his body; this makes it difficult on a performer nowadays, and he has been involved in some schedule shifts. Here in Hollywood, for instance, his show has been switched from night-time to daytime, which was a ridiculous move because I have it on the best authority that all the statistics indicated his ratings doubled in the last month—and without the help of much good promotion or publicity. Regis may not be another Clifton Fadiman, but he is that rarity, an unpretentious host who, though he sometimes overvalues his big-name guests, frequently gets more legitimately interesting interviews from them than do his competitors.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Gov. Paul Johnson of Mississippi appears on NBC-TV's "Meet The Press" Sunday. . . The sixth annual "CBS Reports' discussion with Walter Lippmann, in which the columnist gives his views of, national and foreign affairs, is scheduled for Feb. 22, with Eric Sevareid the interviewer.

College Expands Night Courses

Four new night credit classes have been added to the College of Marin spring semester schedule. Three will be taught on the Kentfield campus and the fourth at Novato High School.

Accounting will be given from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays in room 58, Engineering Building, by instructor Richard Szukalski; introductory accounting, 7 to 10 p.m. Thursdays, room 27, Science Building, by instructor John Gillin, and algebra, 7 to 10 p.m., Mondays, room 91, Olney Hall, instructor David Wong.

Additional class in English reading and composition will be given at Novato High School in room 22, 7 to 10 p.m., Tuesdays by instructor Allen West.

Kudos For Reservists

Sheriff's Marine Patrol Installs New Officers

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer administered the oath to the new officers. Sheriff's Inspector Bowen Bridges presented the past president's trophy to outgoing captain Ellis D. Murphy.

Murphy gave a resume of the patrol's activities during 1964. They included 2,480 hours logged on Marin County waters; 28 persons rescued, including one who attempted suicide; 41 boats towed to safety, and participation in four searches conducted by the sheriff's office.

Song, Yell Vote Changes Sought

The spirit revision committee at Terra Linda High School is preparing a constitutional amendment that would change the procedure for electing song and yell leaders.

Currently yell and song yeaders are elected in groups for each season, basketball and football. Under the proposed amendment they would be elected individually for a one-year term.

If the student council approves the committee's recommendation by a two-thirds majority, the amendment will be voted upon by the student body.

TINE TIME

Pupils in Sausalito schools didn't exactly get the needle yesterday —they got the tines. They were given tuberculin skin tests by a new method, the injection being made with a little button with four tiny tines. Michael Richardson (above), kindergarten pupil at Central school, doesn't seem to like the idea at all as Mrs. Jorgen Madsen holds his arm. At right is close-up of the button. Sausalito School District provided the district-wide testing, with assistance of the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. and Marin County Health Department. (Independent-Journal photos)

Convalescent Hospital Tops Larkspur Planners' Agenda

Larkspur Planning Commission tonight will consider a plan for a convalescent hospital in Greenbrae, but this time the building height promises to be no problem. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. at the City Hall.

The last similar case caused a major turmoil in the city last year because it was eight stories high, far above the 35 feet allowed by the city zoning ordinance. But the present project, proposed by Everett Berg, will be one story high.

The building as planned has another difficulty. It covers too much ground. The plans submitted to the city show a 68-bed hospital covering 15,769 square feet of the 35,012-square-foot parcel, or about 45 per cent. The ordinance allows only 40 per cent lot coverage in the administrative-professional zone.

The site, owned by Trend Development Co., is next to Bon Air Road, just north of Bon Air Bridge, on filled land near Corte Madera Creek.

The Larkspur Planning Commission is also expected to set a hearing date for a slope policy zoning ordinance.

Conservationist Leaders To Be Named At Dinner

The Marin Conservation Council will name the county's leading conservationist for 1964 at a dinner at the Marin Rod and Gun Club at Point San Quentin at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 27.

Representatives of Marin's 11 cities and towns, including city councilmen, planning commissioners and mayors have been invited to the meeting, according to Judge Leonard A. Thomas of San Rafael, chairman.

The winner's name will be engraved on a permanent trophy donated by the Independent-Journal. Plaques for all nominees have been provided by radio station KTIM.

Honor Grades

Terra Linda Literary Effort Gets Backing

The student council at Terra Linda High School has voted the school literary magazine "Perception," a guaranteed budget of $500.

Under the system, the council will cover any losses incurred by the magazine or receive any profits made.
